Turner Eric Shanes, 2023-12-28 At fifteen Turner was already exhibiting View of Lambeth He soon acquired the reputation of an immensely clever watercolourist A disciple of Girtin and Cozens he showed in his choice and presentation of theme a picturesque imagination which seemed to mark him out for a brilliant career as an illustrator He travelled first in his native land and then on several occasions in France the Rhine Valley Switzerland and Italy He soon began to look beyond illustration However even in works in which we are tempted to see only picturesque imagination there appears his dominant and guiding ideal of lyric landscape His choice of a single master from the past is an eloquent witness for he studied profoundly such canvases of Claude as he could find in England copying and imitating them with a marvellous degree of perfection His cult for the great painter never failed He desired his Sun Rising through Vapour and Dido Building Carthage to be placed in the National Gallery side by side with two of Claude's masterpieces And there we may still see them and judge how legitimate was this proud and splendid homage It was only in 1819 that Turner went to Italy to go again in 1829 and 1840 Certainly Turner experienced emotions and found subjects for reverie which he later translated in terms of his own genius into symphonies of light and colour Ardour is tempered with melancholy as shadow strives with light Melancholy even as it appears in the enigmatic and profound creation of Albrecht Dürer finds no home in Turner's protean fairyland what place could it have in a cosmic dream Humanity does not appear there except perhaps as stage characters at whom we hardly glance Turner's pictures fascinate us and yet we think of nothing precise nothing human only unforgettable colours and phantoms that lay hold on our imaginations Humanity really only inspires him when linked with the idea of death a strange death more a lyrical dissolution like the finale of an opera     The Second Punic War Between Hannibal and the Romans: the Whole Seventeen Books Englished from the Latine of Silius Italicus: with a Continuation from the Triumph of Scipio, to the Death of Hannibal. By Tho. Ross. [With Plates and an Engraved Titlepage.] Tiberius Catius Silius Italicus, 1672

J.M.W. Turner Eric Shanes, 2019-12-09 J M W Turner is without a doubt the greatest painter of landscapes and seascapes of all time His production was prodigious some 550 oil paintings more than 2 000 extremely detailed and refined watercolours and nearly 20 000 studies sketches and watercolour sketches He excelled in all forms of painting landscapes or seascapes elaborate historical representations or classical scenes miniature and watercolours of scenes of daily life on land and on sea destined to be reproduced in engravings The ensemble of Turner's artwork evokes a particularly rich and dramatic sensibility an interest for the complexities of life an unequalled approach of the size and scale of nature and a profound curiosity to discover what is under the surface that which the painter calls the intrinsic qualities and causes of things This curiosity leads Turner to explore the universal principles of architecture whether it is born from nature or by man's hand of light of meteorology as well as of the dynamic of waves He was a talented and extremely sophisticated colourist becoming one of the best in European painting and without a doubt the most skilled painter in conveying subtleties and nuances His works particularly his last works reflect his projection of an ideal world of colours forms and impressions

Fields of Blood Ben Kane, 2016-02-02 Hannibal's campaign to defeat Rome continues Having brought his army safely over the Alps in winter he now marches south to confront the enemy With him is a young soldier Hanno Like his general Hanno burns to vanquish Rome Never has the possibility seemed so likely Facing Hanno is his former friend Quintus whom Hanno met while in Roman captivity A bitter quarrel with his father led Quintus to join the Roman infantry under an assumed name Among his legionaries he finds that his enemies are not just the Carthaginians but men of his own side A stealthy game of cat and mouse is being played with Hannibal seeking to fight and Rome's generals avoiding battle But battle cannot be delayed for much longer Eventually the two armies meet under a fierce summer sun in August in the south of Italy The place is Cannae the fields of blood The encounter will go down in history as one of the bloodiest battles ever fought a battle in which Hanno and Quintus know they must fight as never before just to stay alive     The Mediterranean Sea From Alexander

Cannae: The Experience of Battle in the Second Punic War Gregory Daly, 2005-08-18 On a hot and dusty summer's day in 216 BC the forces of the Carthaginian general Hannibal faced the Roman army in a dramatic encounter at Cannae Massively outnumbered the Carthaginians nevertheless won an astonishing victory one that left more than 50 000 men dead Gregory Daly's enthralling study considers the reasons that led the two armies to the field of battle and why each followed the course that they did when they got there It explores in detail the composition of the armies and the tactics and leadership methods of the opposing generals Finally by focusing on the experiences of those who fought Daly gives an unparalleled portrait of the true horror and chaos of ancient warfare This striking and vivid account is the fullest yet of the bloodiest battle in ancient history

Soldiers, Citizens, And The Symbols Of War Antonio Santosuosso, 2019-05-20 In this comprehensive overview of ancient warfare Antonio Santosuosso explores how the tactical and strategic concepts of warfare changed between the beginning of the fifth century B C and the middle of the second century B C and why the West Greece Macedonia and Rome triumphed over the East understood geographically as Persia or ideologically captivating escape into the past that remains relevant and thought provoking today      The War with God Pramit Chaudhuri, 2014 By examining literary accounts of theomachy literally god fight The War With God provides a new perspective on the canonical literary traditions of epic and tragedy and will be of great interest to scholars in Classics as well as those working on the European epic and tragic traditions The struggle between human and god has always held a prominent place in classical literature especially in the closely related genres of epic and tragedy ranging from the physical confrontation of Achilles with the river god Scamander in Iliad 21 to Pentheus more figurative challenge to Dionysus in Euripides Bacchae Yet perhaps the most intense engagement with theomachy occurs in Latin literature of the 1st century AD which included not only the overreachers of Ovid's Metamorphoses and Hannibal's assault on Capitoline Jupiter in Silius Italicus Punica but also in the richest and most extended treatments of the theme the transgressive figures of Hercules in Seneca's Hercules Furens and Capaneus and Hippomedon in Statius Thebaid This book therefore explores the presence of theomachy in Roman imperial poetry focusing on Seneca and Statius and sets it within a tradition going back through the Augustan age all the way to archaic Greece The central argument of the book is that theomachy symbolizes various conflicts of authority the poets attempts to outdo their literary predecessors the contentions of rival philosophical views and the violent assertions of power that characterized both autocratic authority and its opposition By drawing on evidence from literature politics religion and philosophy this project reveals the various influences that shaped the intellectual and cultural significance of theomachy from Stoic and Epicurean debates about the gods to the divinization of the emperor from poetic competition with Vergil and Homer to tyranny and revolution under the Julio Claudian and Flavian dynasties      Making and Remaking Pennsylvania's Civil War William Blair, William Pencak, 2010-11-01      Cruising in the Last War Charles Jacobs Peterson, 1850
