History Of Christian Dogma By Ferdinand Christian Baur:

History of Christian Dogma Ferdinand Christian Baur, 2014 History of Christian Dogma is a translation of Ferdinand Christian Baur's Lehrbuch der christlichen Dogmengeschichte second edition 1858 The Lehrbuch which Baur himself prepared summarizes in 400 pages his lectures on the history of Christian dogma published posthumously in four volumes Baur professor of theology at the University of Tübingen from 1826 to 1860 brilliantly applied Hegelian categories to his historical studies in New Testament church history and history of Christian dogma According to Baur Dogma is the rational articulation of the Christian idea or principle the idea that God and humanity are united through Christ and reconciled in the faith of the spiritual community Following an introduction on the concept and history of the history of dogma the Lehrbuch treats three main periods the dogma of the ancient church or the substantiality of dogma the dogma of the Middle Ages or the dogma of inwardly reflected consciousness and dogma in the modern era or dogma and free self consciousness The entire history is a progression in the self articulation of dogma through conflict and resolution moving gradually from objective to subjective forms and to the mediation of subject and object by the philosophers and theologians of the early nineteenth century The detailed analyses provide a wealth of information on individual thinkers and doctrines that is still relevant today

Ferdinand Christian Baur and the History of Early Christianity Martin Bauphiess, Christof Landmesser, David Lincicum, 2017-02-17 Ferdinand Christian Baur 1792 1860 has been described as the greatest and at the same time the most controversial theologian in German Protestant theology since Schleiermacher The controversy was epitomized by a nineteenth century British critic who wrote that his theory makes of Christianity a thing of purely natural origin calls in question the authenticity of all but a few of the New Testament books and makes the whole collection contain not a harmonious system of divine truth but a confused mass of merely human and contradictory opinions as to the nature of the Christian religion The contributors to this volume however regard Baur as an epoch making New Testament scholar whose methods and conclusions though superseded have been mostly affirmed during the century and a half since his death This collection focuses on the history of early Christianity although as a historian of the church and theology Baur covered the entire field up to own time He combined the most exacting historical research with a theological interpretation of history influenced by Kant Schelling and Hegel The first three chapters discuss Baur's relation to Strauss Müller and Hegel Then a central core of chapters considers his historical and exegetical perspectives Judaism and Hellenism Gnosticism New Testament introduction and theology the Pauline epistles the Synoptic Gospels John the critique of miracle and the combination of absoluteness and relativity The final chapters view his influence by analyzing the reception of Baur in Britain Baur and Harnack and Baur and practical theology This work offers a multi faceted picture of his thinking which will stimulate contemporary discussion Ferdinand Christian Baur and the History of Early Christianity Martin

Bauspiess, Christof Landmesser, David Lincicum, 2017 This volume provides a reconstruction of Baur's contributions to specific fields of research It offers a multi faceted picture of his thinking which will stimulate contemporary discussion

Modern German Theology, Volume 1: 1781-1848 Grant Kaplan, Kevin M. Vander Schel, 2023-05-20 From the closing decades of the eighteenth century German theology has been a major intellectual force within modern western thought closely connected to important developments in idealism romanticism historicism phenomenology and hermeneutics Despite its influential legacy however no recent attempts have sought to offer an overview of its history and development Oxford History of Modern German Theology Vol I 1781 1848 the first of a three volume series provides the most comprehensive multi authored overview of German theology from the period from 1781 1848 Kaplan and Vander Schel cover categories frequently omitted from earlier overviews of the time period such as the place of Judaism in modern German society race and religion and the impact of social history in shaping theological debate Rather than focusing on individual figures alone Oxford History of Modern German Theology Vol I 1781 1848 describes the narrative arc of the period by focusing on broader intellectual and cultural movements ongoing debates and significant events It furthermore provides a historical introduction to each of the chronological subsections that divides the book Moreover unlike previous efforts to introduce this time period and geographical region the volume offers chapters covering such previously neglected topics as religious orders the influence of Romantic art secularism religious freedom and important but overlooked scholarly initiatives such as the Corpus Reformatorum Attention to such matters will make this volume an invaluable repository of scholarship and knowledge and an indispensable reference resource for decades to come

Jewish Christianity Matt Jackson-McCabe, 2020-06-23 A fresh exploration of the category Jewish Christianity from its invention in the Enlightenment to contemporary debates For hundreds of years historians have been asking fundamental questions about the separation of Christianity from Judaism in antiquity Matt Jackson McCabe argues provocatively that the concept Jewish Christianity which has been central to scholarly reconstructions represents an enduring legacy of Christian apologetics Freethinkers of the English Enlightenment created this category as a means of isolating a distinctly Christian religion from what otherwise appeared to be the Jewish culture of Jesus and the apostles Tracing the development of this patently modern concept of a Jewish Christianity from its origins to early twenty first century scholarship Jackson McCabe shows how a category that began as a way to reimagine the apologetic notion of an authoritative original Christianity continues to cause problems in the contemporary study of Jewish and Christian antiquity He draws on promising new approaches to Christianity and Judaism as socially constructed terms of identity to argue that historians would do better to leave the concept of Jewish Christianity behind

McGrath, 2005-08-26 The Making of Modern German Christology is a reliable and readable introduction to the central themes and personalities of modern German Christology Germany and northern Switzerland have been the source of a fertile theological tradition since the beginning of the Protestant Reformation in the sixteenth century Moreover the Enlightenment seems to have had its deepest theological impact in Germany and on one area of theology in particular the person and work of Christ Now that chapter in church history seems to be coming to a close with a shift in theological emphasis away from the Continent to North America This book revised and updated from an earlier British edition is therefore a survey of that major chapter in modern theology for students and informed laypeople The Christian Tradition Jaroslav Pelikan,1991-10-04

Explores the iconography dogma and liturgy of Greek Slavic and Syriac forms of Christianity Apocalyptic and the Future of Theology Joshua B. Davis,Douglas Harink,2012-11-07 Ernst Kasemann famously claimed that apocalyptic is the mother of Christian theology J Louis Martyn s radical interpretation of the overarching significance of apocalyptic in Paul s theology has pushed Kasemann s claim further and deeper Still despite the recognition that apocalyptic is at the core of New Testament and Pauline theology modern theology has often dismissed domesticated or demythologized early Christian apocalyptic A renewed interest in taking apocalyptic seriously is one of the most exciting developments in recent theology The essays in this volume taking their point of departure from the work of Martyn and Kasemann wrestle critically with the promise and possible peril of the apocalyptic transformation of Christian theology With original contributions from established scholars including Beverly Gaventa Stanley Hauerwas Robert Jenson Walter Lowe Joseph Mangina Christopher Morse and Fleming Rutledge as well as younger voices this volume makes a substantial contribution to the discussion of apocalyptic and theology today A unique feature of the book is a personal reflection on Ernst Kasemann by J Louis Martyn himself Handbook of Medieval Studies Albrecht Classen,2010-11-29 This interdisciplinary handbook provides extensive information about research in medieval studies and its most important results over the last decades The handbook is a reference work which enables the readers to quickly and purposely gain insight into the important research discussions and to inform themselves about the current status of research in the field The handbook consists of four parts The first large section offers articles on all of the main disciplines and discussions of the field The second section presents articles on the key concepts of modern medieval studies and the debates therein The third section is a lexicon of the most important text genres of the Middle Ages The fourth section provides an international bio bibliographical lexicon of the most prominent medievalists in all disciplines A comprehensive bibliography rounds off the compendium The result is a reference work which exhaustively documents the current status of research in medieval studies and brings the disciplines and experts of the field together The Survivor's Guide to Theology M. James Sawyer,2016-04-11 Men and women embarking on the study of systematic theology quickly find themselves awash in a sea of unfamiliar theological terms historical names and philosophical isms The Survivor s Guide to Theology is both a life preserver to help stay afloat and a compass to help navigate these often unfamiliar waters While many books on systematic theology provide introductory material still the reader is often forced to dive right into actual theology without adequate framework for understanding Resources for building this framework are available but scattered This unique book brings them together in one place The Survivor s Guide to Theology is ideal for both introduction and review reference The first part deals with the question What is Theology It addresses issues categories theory of knowledge and more The second part surveys nine major theological systems For each the author provides history and background overview of content and theological distinctive and a critique The final part provides the reader with biographical sketches of significant theologians a brief dictionary of common theological terms and an annotated bibliography of major theological works     Lectures on New Testament Theology Peter C. Hodgson, 2016-03-24 Ferdinand Christian Baur 1792 1860 one of the great innovators in the study of the New Testament argued that each of its books reflects the interests and tendencies of its author in a particular religious historical milieu A critique of the writings must precede any judgments about the historical validity of individual stories about Jesus in the Gospels Thus Baur could move beyond the impasse created by Strauss's Life of Jesus Baur demonstrated that the Gospel of John is not a historical document comparable to the Synoptic Gospels and cannot be used to reconstruct the teaching of Jesus and that the Synoptic Gospels must be read critically and selectively He applied the same principles to the Epistles arguing that only four are genuinely Pauline Galatians 1 and 2 Corinthians and Romans Baur's Lectures on New Testament Theology delivered in Tübingen during the 1850s summarize thirty years of his research The lectures begin with an Introduction on the concept history and organization of New Testament theology Part One is devoted to the teaching of Jesus which Baur finds most reliably in Matthew Part Two contains the teaching of the Apostles in three chronological periods The first period presents the theological frameworks of the Apostle Paul and the Book of Revelation the second period the frameworks of Hebrews the Deutero Pauline Epistles James and Peter the Synoptic Gospels and Acts and the third period those of the Pastoral Epistles and the Gospel of John
