Apartheid and the Making of a Black Psychologist N. Chabani Manganyi, 2016-05-01 This intriguing memoir details in a quiet and restrained manner with what it meant to be a committed black intellectual activist during the apartheid years and beyond Few autobiographies exploring the life of the mind and the history of ideas have come out of South Africa and N Chabani Manganyi s reflections on a life engaged with ideas the psychological and philosophical workings of the mind and the act of writing are a refreshing addition to the genre of life writing Starting with his rural upbringing in Mavambe Limpopo in the 1940s Manganyi s life story unfolds at a gentle pace tracing the twists and turns of his journey from humble beginnings to Yale University in the USA The author details his work as a clinical practitioner and researcher as a biographer as an expert witness in defence of opponents of the apartheid regime and finally as a leading educationist in Mandela s Cabinet and in the South African academy Apartheid and the Making of a Black Psychologist is a book about relationships and the fruits of intellectual and creative labour Manganyi describes how he used his skills as a clinical psychologist to explore lives both those of the subjects of his biographies and those of the accused for whom he testified in mitigation his aim always to find a higher purpose and a higher self

Religion and AIDS Treatment in Africa Hansjörg Dilger, Thera Rasing, 2016-04-08 This book critically interrogates emerging interconnections between religion and biomedicine in Africa in the era of antiretroviral treatment for AIDS Highlighting the complex relationships between religious ideologies practices and organizations on the one hand and biomedical treatment programmes and the scientific languages and public health institutions that sustain them on the other this anthology charts largely uncovered terrain in the social science study of the Aids epidemic Spanning different regions of Africa the authors offer unique access to issues at the interface of religion and medical humanitarianism and the manifold therapeutic traditions religious practices and moralities as they co evolve in situations of AIDS treatment This book also sheds new light on how religious spaces are formed in response to the dilemmas people face with the introduction of life prolonging treatment programmes

Liberation and Development Leslie Anne Hadfield, 2016-05-01 Liberation and Development Black Consciousness Community Programs in South Africa is an account of the community development programs of the Black Consciousness movement in South Africa It covers the emergence of the movement s ideas and practices in the context of the late 1960s and early 1970s then analyzes how activists refined their practices mobilized resources and influenced people through their work The book examines this history primarily through the Black Community Programs organization and its three major projects the yearbook Black Review the Zanempilo Community Health Center and the Njwaxa leatherwork factory As opposed to better known studies of antipolitical macroeconomic initiatives this book shows that people from the so called global South led development in innovative ways that promised to increase social and political participation It particularly explores the power that youth women and churches had in leading change in a hostile political environment With this new perspective on a major liberation movement Hadfield not only causes us to rethink aspects of African history but also offers lessons from the past for African societies still dealing with developmental challenges similar to those faced during apartheid

The Fires Beneath Seán Morrow, 2016-06-01 The life of Monica Wilson is a story of groundbreaking scholarship passionate creativity and personal tragedy during South Africa s

bitter and divided twentieth century As a young anthropologist in the 1930s Monica immersed herself in the lives work and beliefs of African communities in southern and East Africa while carefully observing the effects of historical change At the core of her existence was her intellectual collaboration and intense personal relationship with her husband the brilliant but clinically depressive Godfrey Wilson who took his own life in 1944 After Godfrey s death Monica raised their two children and built a career as a leading academic at Fort Hare Rhodes University College and the University of Cape Town In a political environment where black academics were under constant threat and ideas were censored she outspokenly advocated racial equality and freedom of speech her publications emphasising a common South African identity and implicitly challenging apartheid separate development This fascinating biography moves between the Eastern Cape Cambridge Tanganyika Nyasaland Northern Rhodesia and Cape Town It explores the relationship between anthropology and history and the tensions between liberalism Christianity Marxism and apartheid ideology Drawing on the letters and diaries left by Monica and Godfrey Wilson this is a powerful story about politics race war faith love and loss Year of Fire, Year of Ash Baruch Hirson,2016-06-15 We can say without fear of being contradicted by history that June 16 1976 heralded the beginning of the end of the centuries old white rule in this country Nelson Mandela Originally banned on publication by the apartheid government Year of Fire Year of Ash is an eye opening account of how in June 1976 20 000 school students faced down the tanks and guns of a vicious racist regime in a revolt that galvanized the black working class and became a pivotal turning point for the anti apartheid movement More than this the book overturns much of the conventional logic that served to explain the event at the time showing it was not simply a student protest but part of a wider uprising Released in this new edition to mark the fortieth anniversary Year of Fire Year of Ash provides an unparalleled insight into the origins and events of the uprising from its antecedents in the 1920s to its role in inspiring global solidarity against apartheid As South Africa experiences a new wave of popular discontent and as new forms of black consciousness come to the fore in movements around the world Baruch Hirson s book provides a timely reminder of the Soweto revolt s continued significance to struggles against oppression today Post-Christian Feminisms Lisa Isherwood,2016-04-08 This book explores the impact and contribution of post theories in the field of Christian feminist theology Post theory is an important and cutting edge discursive field which has revolutionized the production of knowledge in both feminism and theology This book fills a gap by providing a text that can make authoritative statements on the use and status of post theory in feminist theology and secondly it makes an on going contribution to the discourse of Christian feminist theology and its liberation agenda Distinguished and established scholars contribute conclusive essays on the most recent and exciting developments in post theory feminism and theology White on Black in South Africa Michael Wade,2016-07-27 The English speaking whites of South Africa participate in the larger culture of the English speaking world while rejecting its unspoken consensual positions on many basic issues This study analyses texts of different kinds produced by the group to examine the way these deviant

English speakers see themselves and particularly how this self image is influenced by the presence of the blacks who constitute a crucial part of their perceptual field Economically powerful but politically marginal for many years the English speaking whites have always been mediators of their community s experience to the world culture of the English language the study shows how the act of mediation operates in more than one direction producing a literary tradition that is essentially and perhaps surprisingly dissident The Road to Soweto Julian Brown,2016 Conclusion Consequences Bibliography Index
