Jamboree Activity Guide A Jackie Holderness, Neil Griffiths, 2005      APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service ,      Resources in Education , 1995-10      Kakadu Jack resource pack Brenda Parkes, 2000      Contingent Valuation R. Carson, 2012-01-01 This major reference work the first of its kind provides a comprehensive and authoritative introduction to the large and growing literature on contingent valuation It includes entries on over 7 500 contingent valuation papers and studies from over 130 countries covering both the published and grey literatures This book provides an interpretive historical account of the development of contingent valuation the most commonly used approach to placing a value on goods not normally sold in the marketplace The major fields catalogued here include culture the environment and health application This bibliography is an ideal starting point for researchers wanting to find other studies that have valued goods or used techniques similar to those they are interested in For those wanting to conduct meta analyses the book will serve as an invaluable guide to source material For those wanting to conduct meta analyses the book will serve as an invaluable guide to source material In addition to the print edition we offer access for purchasers of the book to a website providing the contents of as a searchable Word document and in a variety of standard bibliographic database forms

Contingent Valuation is an indispensable reference source for researchers scholars and policymakers concerned with survey approaches to the problem of environmental valuation      APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service , 1993      The House That Jack Built James Colman, 2016-09-01 This is the story of how an ordinary bloke from the bush became the key figure in a movement that would change the shape of our cities and bring about lasting political and legal reform This is the story of the house that Jack Munday built Without the green bans movement of the 1970s Sydney and many other cities would look very different Pulling together an unlikely alliance of environmentalists and union players earned Jack Munday a reputation as both the best known unionist and best known conservationist in Australia Under his leadership the movement fought against the slash and burn philosophy that almost saw The Rocks fitted out with high rise buildings a highway through the centre of Glebe and total development of Centennial Park In this long awaited book James Colman reflects on Jack s remarkable life and his ongoing legacy Munday overturned the bulldozer mentality of the 1960s and 1970s and helped to persuade Australians everywhere to cherish and protect the heritage of special buildings places and sites      Natural Resource Damages Kevin M. Ward, John W. Duffield, 1992      Contingent Valuation J.A. Hausman, 2012-12-02 The papers in this volume present a quite critical assessment of contingent valuation CV CV is a survey method that attempts to estimate individual values for economic goods by asking people hypothetical questions about their willingness to pay for such goods In economics CV has previously been studied almost solely by economists specializing in environmental economics This book however reports research which is mainly from economists with specialities in economic theory econometrics and public finance rather than from the more narrowly focused research of environmental economists In addition the research of specialists in psychology market research and litigation is included Resources in Education, 1995 APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service, Flammable Australia Richard J Williams, A Malcolm Gill, Ross A Bradstock, 2012-02-21 In Flammable Australia Fire Regimes Biodiversity and Ecosystems in a Changing World leading researchers in fire ecology and management discuss how fire regimes have shaped and will continue to shape the distribution and abundance of Australia's highly diverse plants and animals Central to this is the exploration of the concept of the fire regime the cumulative pattern of fires and their individual characteristics fire type frequency intensity season and how variation in regime components affects landscapes and their constituent biota Contributions by 44 authors explore a wide range of topics including classical themes such as pre history and evolution fire behaviour fire regimes in key biomes plant and animal life cycles remote sensing and modelling of fire regimes and emerging issues such as climate change and fire regimes carbon dynamics and opportunities for managing fire regimes for multiple benefits In the face of significant global change the conservation of our native species and ecosystems requires an understanding of the processes at play when fires and landscapes interact This book provides a comprehensive treatment of this complex science in the context of one of the world's most flammable continents Environmental Economics and Policy Thomas H. Tietenberg, 1998 This text can be used to understand the behavioural sources of environmental problems and to provide the foundations for solutions It provides insights from the natural and physical sciences literature and political science Listen... Our Land Is Crying Mary E. White, 1997 Australia has extremely serious problems of land and water degradation Our land is crying out for help In order to understand the problems and to find long term solutions we need to see the big picture Foraging and Farming David R. Harris, Gordon C. Hillman, 2014-10-30 This book is one of a series of more than 20 volumes resulting from the World Archaeological Congress September 1986 attempting to bring together not only archaeologists and anthropologists from many parts of the world as well as academics from contingent disciplines but also non academics from a wide range of cultural backgrounds This volume develops a new approach to plant exploitation and early agriculture in a worldwide comparative context It modifies the conceptual dichotomy between hunter gatherers and farmers viewing human exploitation of plant resources as a global evolutionary process which incorporated the beginnings of cultivation and crop domestication The studies throughout the book come from a worldwide range of geographical contexts from the Andes to China and from Australia to the Upper Mid West of North America This work is of interest to anthropologists archaeologists botanists and geographers Originally published 1989 Kakadu & Nitmiluk National Parks, Northern Territory Dean M. Hoatson, 2000 A Guide to the rocks landforms plants animals Aboriginal culture and human impact Understanding English Pronunciation Leonard Boyer, 2001 Designed so students can work through the exercises in class with other students or alone without the aid of the teacher Spaces in the book can be filled in Politics and Resistance of Coal in Australia and India Ruchira Talukdar, 2025-01-31 Since 2009 international climate activism has focused on stopping coalmining in solidarity with local and Indigenous struggles that are resisting coalmining Based on ethnographic and historic research in Australia and India this book compares the politics and resistance to coal in the two countries particularly focusing on the time period between 2009 and 2018 and the case of the Carmichael coalmine in Queensland and the Mahan coalmine in central India This book shows differences and similarities in the political economy of coal and creates understanding about the significantly different imperatives and narratives of anti coal environmentalism in Australia and India Through the Stop Adani movement and its collaboration with the Wangan and Jagalingou Traditional Owners and farmers against coalmining in Queensland and Greenpeace and forest based communities resisting coalmining in Madhya Pradesh Ruchira Talukdar not only explores anti coal movement dynamics but also how these movements grapple with the violation of Indigenous land rights through coal extraction in both places Drawing on differences and patterns in Australian and Indian anti coal activisms this book proposes a global outlook an intersectional framework beyond the singularity of stopping coal that can encapsulate visions for secure futures of communities on the frontlines of fossil fuel struggles for climate activism The conclusions help to decolonize climate activism as well as make it cognizant of global North South contextual differences for effective solidarity The author s unique vantage point through experience in environmental activism over 20 years across Australia and India combined with research in both countries makes this book a crucial resource for scholars and practitioners in just transition climate politics and environmental activism across the global North and South Australian national bibliography ,1961

Way of the Earth T.c. Mcluhan,1995-07 This book draws upon both ancient and contemporary sources to examine the significance of the earth from the perspective of six different cultures and how these spiritual traditions have valued perceived and understood the earth At first glance the peoples of aboriginal Australia Japan Greece Africa South America and Native North America couldn t be more different But by taking a closer look the author shows that there are many more similarities than differences all revere mountains as a source of inspiration and holiness all feel a spiritual connection to the soil itself all create art and literature to celebrate their connection to the land and all see themselves as inextricable from the land they call home This unique volume explores how human beings across the planet and across time have felt about the earth and nature and how they have understood it related to it and celebrated it in their literature mythology religion and art It demonstrates that no matter where on the planet we exist and no matter what time period we live we all have a profound connection to the earth from Book Jacket
