A Passion for success Sivalingum Moodly, 2022-01-01 this book titled A Passion For Success demonstrates forcefully how the identified individuals despite their blindness surmounted challenges in their own lives in order to achieve success and in doing so invariably improved the quality of lives of others Consisting of fourteen chapters each containing a unique story with a compelling theme the underlying message in the book appears to resonate with the view of Booker T Washington 1856-1915 a leading African American intellectual of the 19th century who observes that Success is to be measured not so much by the position one has reached in life as by the obstacles one has overcome while trying to succeed

Cities, Space and Power Amira Osman, 2020-12-31
 The scholarly purpose of this manuscript is to provide a resource for academics and researchers looking into cities space and power in emerging economies It also takes into consideration the relationship between emerging economies and developing contexts as well as the lessons that may be shared between them This book presents a unique perspective and aims to highlight issues not addressed much in writing on the built environment Based on substantiation and references to numerous other sources and authors alternative theoretical frameworks for the study of the built environment are developed This is a very relevant contribution at this time especially as cities will most probably go through transformations in the post COVID-19 era Our first line of defense against this public health crisis will be in areas of poverty with people who have generally been excluded and urban practices that have been undocumented or labeled as informal The main thesis of the manuscript is that space and power are strongly linked in cities The research results prevalent in the book are original and while the authors consult widely across disciplines the themes are firmly rooted in the built environment fields with a focus on the architectural discipline

Savanna Woody Plants and Large Herbivores Peter Frank Scogings, Mahesh Sankaran, 2019-09-30

Handbook of Research on Information and Cyber Security in the Fourth Industrial Revolution Fields, Ziska, 2018-06-22 The prominence and growing dependency on information communication technologies in nearly every aspect of life has opened the door to threats in cyberspace Criminal elements inside and outside organizations gain access to information that can cause financial and reputational damage Criminals also target individuals daily with personal devices like smartphones and home security systems who are often unaware of the dangers and the privacy threats around them The Handbook of Research on Information and Cyber Security in the Fourth Industrial Revolution is a critical scholarly resource that creates awareness of the severity of cyber information threats on personal business governmental and societal levels The book explores topics such as social engineering in information security threats to cloud computing and cybersecurity resilience during the time of the Fourth Industrial Revolution As a source that builds on available literature and expertise in the field of information technology and security this publication proves useful for academicians educationalists policy makers government officials students researchers and business leaders and managers

Race for Education Mark Hunter, 2019-01-24 Following the end of apartheid in 1994 the ANC government placed education at the centre of its plans to build a nonracial and more equitable society Yet by the 2010s a wave of student protests voiced demands for decolonised and affordable education By following families and schools in Durban for nearly a decade Mark Hunter sheds new light on South Africa's political transition and the global phenomenon of education marketisation He rejects simple descriptions of the country's move from race to class apartheid and reveals how white phenotypic traits like skin colour retain value in the schooling system even as the multiracial middle class embraces prestigious linguistic and embodied practices the book calls white tone By illuminating the actions and choices of both white and black parents Hunter provides a unique view on race class and gender in a country emerging from a notorious system of

institutionalised racism      Leadership and Management Strategies for Creating Agile Universities Connolly, Thomas M.,Farrier, Stephen,2021-12-03 The global higher education sector has changed dramatically as universities continue to face unprecedented challenges associated with the COVID 19 pandemic Many are struggling to navigate this crisis while maintaining high quality course delivery ensuring strong student recruitment numbers and providing clear communication to staff and students Issues have emerged at an exponential rate and coping with the pandemic has been particularly difficult for universities as they serve several functions such as being educational institutions as well as major employers Leadership and Management Strategies for Creating Agile Universities reflects on the challenges that higher education institutions have faced during the pandemic and the associated projected socio economic impact yet to be felt It also considers how different universities have addressed the challenges so as to learn what has and has not worked and speculates what future implications exist for the vision of a new higher education sector in a changing world Covering topics such as developmental leadership IT governance and lifelong learning it is ideal for policymakers industry professionals academicians researchers governors decision makers teachers and students      Transformative Innovation for Sustainable Human Settlements Andrew Emmanuel Okem,Sithembiso Lindelihle Myeni,Tshepang Mosiea,2024-11-18 This book uses the transformative innovation policy TIP as a lens to show how innovative processes practices and systems could address critical challenges and facilitate the delivery of sustainable human settlements in South Africa The TIP approach shows that addressing societal problems is not a function of a technical solution within a government department but one that requires partnership with multiple stakeholders The book argues that it is essential to understand and embrace innovation policy that is transformative and responds to the social and environmental needs at local provincial and national levels It demonstrates that innovation policy should focus on transforming the socio technical systems that demand embracing notions such as experimental delivery and learning directionality and inclusivity Chapters explore the ability of the state to transform its organisational processes and capacity to improve and align its planning implementation monitoring and evaluation systems to high levels of efficiency and sustainability targets Bringing together various theoretical and empirical perspectives on innovation in the context of sustainable human settlement this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of Housing Human Settlements Architecture Public Policy Development Studies Civil Engineering Political Science and Public Administration

Disrupting Shameful Legacies Claudia Mitchell,Relebohile Moletsane,2018-08-14 Much has been written in Canada and South Africa about sexual violence in the context of colonial legacies particularly for Indigenous girls and young women While both countries have attempted to deal with the past through Truth and Reconciliation Commissions and Canada has embarked upon its National Inquiry on Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls there remains a great deal left to do Across the two countries history legislation and the lived experiences of young people and especially girls and young women point to a deeply rooted situation of marginalization Violence on girls and women s bodies also reflects violence on the land and especially issues of dispossession What approaches and methods would make it possible for girls and young women as knowers and actors especially those who are the most marginalized to influence social policy and social change in the context of sexual violence Taken as a whole the chapters in Disrupting Shameful Legacies Girls and Young Women Speaking Back through the Arts to Address Sexual Violence which come out of a transnational study on sexual violence suggest a new legacy one that is based on methodologies that seek to disrupt colonial legacies by privileging speaking up and speaking back through the arts and visual practice to challenge the situation of sexual violence At the same time the fact that so many of the authors of the various chapters are themselves Indigenous young people from either Canada or South Africa also suggests a new legacy of leadership for change

Handbook of Research on Resource Management and the Struggle for Water Sustainability in Africa Nojiyeza, Innocent Simphiwe, Mtapuri, Oliver, Bazaanah, Prosper, Netshiozwi, Edzisani Ellen, 2022-01-28 Access to water and sanitation remains a critical challenge in various countries in Africa The crisis remains the crisis of governance rather than the physical and economic scarcity In most countries water is realized as a human right and subsidies are provided for the indigent households The tricky issue in rural areas remains an issue of access that is often linked to willingness and ability to pay for the installation and daily consumption The Handbook of Research on Resource Management and the Struggle for Water Sustainability in Africa presents practical examples of integrated water resources management IWRM implementation in African countries It further addresses the contemporary issues of alternative energy as part of climate change mitigation and utilizes case studies to examine how communities adapt to climate change Covering topics such as climate justice ecological governance and political ecology this major reference work is a dynamic resource for government officials sociologists climate scientists activists students and educators of higher education academicians and researchers in the fields of social sciences government developmental studies international relations and political science

John Solilo John Solilo, 2016 For 40 years between 1900 and 1939 John Solilo 1864 1940 was a prolific contributor to Xhosa language newspapers under his own name and under the pseudonyms Mde ngelimi Master Wordsmith and Kwanguye It s Still Him He submitted letters and articles on a variety of issues local news reports from Cradock and Uitenhage and a considerable body of poetry Solilo s major literary contribution was his collection of poems entitled Izala published in 1925 the earliest volume of poetry by a single author in the history of Xhosa literature His poetry was inspired by umoya wembongi the spirit of the imbongi the praise poet whose stirring declamations roused his audiences to action or contemplation Solilo s literary reputation today however is at variance with his prominence as a major author in the first four decades of the twentieth century he is hardly mentioned if at all by literary historians That neglect is perhaps not surprising Izala has long been out of print and copies can no longer be located The present volume is therefore an exercise in reclamation and restitution In restoring to the public domain the 65 poems that made up Izala and adding an additional 28 that were published in newspapers both before and after the appearance of Izala the editors hope to revive

John Solilo's reputation as a poet and to establish his status as a pre eminent Xhosa author Jeff Opland commenced his academic career as a medievalist but for the past 40 years he has assembled a collection of oral and printed poetry and has devoted himself to defining and restoring the heritage of literature in the Xhosa language Amongst other works with Peter Mtuze he edited two anthologies of Xhosa literature Isigodlo sikaPhalo 1983 and Izwi labantu 1994 Opland is currently Visiting Professor in the School of Languages African Language Studies at Rhodes University Peter T Mtuze is the most prolific living isiXhosa writer He has authored and co authored no fewer than 30 books His main contribution is in creative writing he has produced novels short stories essays drama poetry autobiography and language books Mtuze's first book UDingezweni which appeared as far back as 1966 is regarded as a classic novel One of his singular achievements was his translation of former President Nelson Mandela's autobiography Long Walk to Freedom into isiXhosa He worked on the University of Fort Hare Xhosa Dictionary Project at the University of South Africa and at Rhodes University where he retired as Professor Emeritus Series Publications of the Opland Collection of Xhosa Literature Vol 3 Subject Poetry African Studies

Navigating Ageing in South Africa Pranitha Maharaj, 2025-01-30 This book systematically explores the lives and varied experiences of older people in South Africa Though a relatively youthful country the share of the population aged sixty and above in South Africa is increasing steadily and is projected to reach 10% of the population by 2025 Population ageing is having major and far reaching implications for a country with widespread poverty changing household structures a heavy burden of communicable diseases and inadequate health infrastructure Pandemics such as HIV AIDS and COVID 19 exacerbate many of the challenges faced by older people Drawing on original research from national surveys and case studies this book explores the various experiences and challenges of older people in their daily lives such as their healthcare social and family lives their socio economic status mental health and what it means to be an older person in South Africa today

Exile Identity, Agency and Belonging in South Africa Zosa De Sas Kropiwnicki, 2017-07-13 This book examines the experiences of 49 second generation exiles from South Africa Using generation as an analytical concept it investigates the relational temporal and embodied nature of their childhoods in terms of kinship relations life cycle cohort development and memory making It reveals how child agents exploited the liminal nature of exile to negotiate their sense of identity home and belonging while also struggling over their position and power in formal Politics and informal politics of the everyday It also reflects upon their political consciousness identity and sense of civic duty on return to post apartheid South Africa and how this has led to the emergence of the Masupatsela generational cohort concerned with driving social and political change in South Africa

Reconciliation and Building a Sustainable Peace Cathy Bollaert, 2019-02-02 This book explores how competing worldviews impact on intergroup relations and building a sustainable peace in culturally diverse societies It raises the question of what happens in a culturally diverse society when competing values and ways of interpreting reality collide and what this means for peace building and the goal of reconciliation Moreover it provides a valuable and needed contribution to how peace building interventions can become more sustainable if tied into local values and embedded in a society's system of meaning making The book engages with questions relating to the extent transitional policies speak to universal values and individualist societies and the implications this might have for how they are implemented in collective societies with different values and forms of social organisation It raises the question of cultural equality and transformation and whether or not this is something that needs to be addressed within peace building theory It argues that inculcating worldview into peace building theory and practice is a vital part of restoring dignity and promoting healing among victims and formerly oppressed groups This book therefore makes an important contribution to what is at best a partially researched topic by providing a deeper understanding of how identity and culture intersect with peace building when seeking to build a sustainable peace
