Handbook of Dutch Church History Herman J. Selderhuis,2014-12-10 Herman Selderhuis as editor of this volume has brought together a team of experts resulting in a unique approach since each chapter is co-written by a catholic and a protestant author who have all integrated the latest research results Each section begins with a brief historiographical overview The same time ecclesiastical events are always set within a greater framework of political social and cultural developments for which reason each author has taken the liberty to describe its own method The user will find in this book tables diagrams and illustrations Also many source texts are integrated in the narration These texts are intended to bring the described events and people closer to the reader and as it were to let them speak the words The name of the book as Handbook of the church history of the Netherlands immediately brings to mind three problematic complexes which are relevant to its user First there is the nature of a handbook that is intended to be a good tool but also has its limitations it stimulates and necessitates the use of further books Second the area The Netherlands is a plurality and that is also noticeable in its church history for each region town and village has its own church history Third the history of the church for sure is the most important aspect but this history can only be understood if it is described in the context of political and social developments

The Spiritual Formation of Seminarians James Keating, 2025-05-16 In this book Deacon James Keating provides an opportunity for one spiritual director to introduce his mind to the minds of other directors with the hope that his ideas may season their own already developed method of direction The book does not attend to all the possible realities a director may encounter within his or her training or within the daily execution of this ministry The author wishes to share his approach to directing seminarians by reflecting upon themes and experiences which regularly appear within direction sessions Spiritual direction certainly has some universal components to it All directors want their directees to internalize a habit of prayer to choose a life of remaining with God to suffer the vulnerability necessary to know divine love and to then embody that love as heralds of the Gospel But each director approaches his or her directees from within their own skin from within a personality that is unique and by way of a formation that reflects the unique attractions of each director and his or her own sufferings failures and fidelities These unique embodiments no one writer can know or capture in a book And so this book simply begins a conversation that the author invites other directors to enter and add to according to their own insights The spiritual life of those in seminary occupies the integrating center of a projected life of priestly ministry Time needed to secure an interior life of prayer is one of the key reasons the Church demands years of formation before the celibate state is entered Such a state in life is entered as a testimony to the reality that God lives and loves In light of such love a man enters seminary to discern if he desires to surrender his whole life in response to God sharing His own To live as a cleric without a vital interior life leaves a man in a state of meaninglessness Instilling the virtue of prayer during priestly formation can help assure that celibate priesthood retains its inspiration and meaning throughout the life of a priest Spiritual directors minister to assist a future priest to secure a lifetime habit of prayer so as to secure his commitment to communicate with the living God
