Elisabeth Vigée Le Brun Gita May, 2008-10-01 The foremost woman artist of her age Elisabeth Vigée Le Brun 1755 1842 exerted her considerable charm to become the friend and then official portraitist of Marie Antoinette Though profitable this role made Vigée Le Brun a public and controversial figure and in 1789 it precipitated her exile In a Europe torn by strife and revolution she nevertheless managed to thrive as an independent self supporting artist doggedly setting up studios in Rome Naples Venice Milan Vienna St Petersburg and London Long overlooked or dismissed Vigée Le Brun's portraits now hang in the Louvre in a room of their own as well as in all leading art museums of the world This gripping biography tells the story of a singularly gifted and high spirited woman during the revolutionary era and explores the development and significance of her art The book also recounts the public and private lives of Elisabeth Vigée Le Brun connecting her with such personalities of her age as Catherine the Great Napoleon and Benjamin Franklin and setting her experiences in the context of contemporary European politics and culture A generous selection of illustrations including sixteen of Vigée Le Brun's portraits presented in full color completes this exceptional volume L'Art et les artistes, 1918

L'art moderne, 1899 Art and Society 1972-2022-2072 Anton Biebl, Elisabeth Hartung, 2023-12-13 Since the advent of modernity art has been associated with freedom provocation and courage In 1972 art was to unfold its potential as an emancipatory and creative force as part of the Gesamtkunstwerk of the XX Olympic Games in Munich according to the grand vision of its planners The international avant garde of the time including Walter de Maria Gerhard Richter Andy Warhol and Dan Flavin enthusiastically developed revolutionary concepts Many of these remained in draft form After the tragic assassination of Israeli athletes concepts such as the SpielstraÙe were canceled This publication is the first to give an impression of the playful participatory cultural programme of 1972 In the second part of the book a multitude of voices from all over the world look to the future International authors and artists use contemporary examples to convey the importance of the arts in shaping the democratic society of the future The Builder, 1889 Journal of Education, 1882 An Oxford Companion to the Romantic Age Iain McCalman, Jon Mee, Gillian Russell, Clara Tuite, 1999-07-01 For the first time in this innovative reference book the Romantic Age is surveyed across all aspects of British culture rather than in literary or artistic terms alone The Companion's two part structure presents forty two essays on major topics by leading international experts cross referenced to an extensive alphabetical section covering all the principal figures events and movements in the broad culture of the period Aimed at students and general readers as well as scholars the essays constitute an accessible pluralistic and modern social history of the epoch the alphabetical entries can either be used alongside them for deeper information on specific subjects or as a free standing reference tool The volume as a whole embraces both high and low culture and explores its subject across the whole breadth of England Scotland Wales and Ireland The book's multi disciplinary approach treats

Romanticism both in aesthetic terms its meaning for painting music design architecture and above all literature and as a historical epoch of revolutionary transformations which ushered in modern democratic and industrialized society In this period Wedgwood turned taste into a commercial enterprise Pierce Egan took Britain by storm with his sensational accounts of low life in the capital and Mary Shelley created in Frankenstein one of the enduring myths of scientific advance The Companion revitalizes canonical Romantic figures in the context of the historical events political and linguistic debates commercial pressures and plebeian subcultures of their day as well as bringing back into historical focus individuals and events whose impact has often been muffled or forgotten With over 100 integrated illustrations bibliographies accompanying all the major essays and an index to Part 1 this is the most comprehensive volume of its kind offering a unique breadth of information to scholars and students of eighteenth and nineteenth century British culture literature and history EDITORIAL BOARD John Brewer University of California Marilyn Butler Exeter College University of Oxford James Chandler University of Chicago Jerome J McGann University of Virginia Charlottesville Mark Philp Oriel College Oxford Robert Webb University of Maryland
