contain maps of various kinds and almost invariably constitute a projective apparatus similar to cartography In addition he demonstrates that spatial signs in film foster a critical relation with the prevailing narrative and mimetic registers of cinema Conley convincingly argues that the very act of watching films and cinema itself is actually a form of cartography Unlike its function in an atlas a map in a movie often causes the spectator to entertain broader questions not only about cinema but also of the nature of space and being

American Silent Horror, Science Fiction and Fantasy Feature Films, 1913-1929 John T. Soister, Henry Nicolella, Steve Joyce, 2014-01-10 During the Silent Era when most films dealt with dramatic or comedic takes on the boy meets girl boy loses girl theme other motion pictures dared to tackle such topics as rejuvenation revivication mesmerism the supernatural and the grotesque A Daughter of the Gods 1916 The Phantom of the Opera 1925 The Magician 1926 and Seven Footprints to Satan 1929 were among the unusual and startling films containing story elements that went far beyond the realm of highly unlikely Using surviving documentation and their combined expertise the authors catalog and discuss these departures from the norm in this encyclopedic guide to American horror science fiction and fantasy in the years from 1913 through 1929

Emotional Structure, Creating the Story Beneath the Plot Peter Dunne, 2007 The leap from concept to final draft is great and the task is filled with hard work and horrors It is here that most writers struggle to get the plot right at the expense of the story s real power The result is a script that is logical in every way yet unmoving Emotional Structure by Emmy and Peabody Award winning producer writer and teacher Peter Dunne is for these times when the plot fits nicely into place like pieces in a puzzle yet an elemental terribly important something remains missing The missing piece won t be found by adding action you can t stir the soul with a car chase And the problem won t be helped by a change of location the only location that matters is deep in your protagonist The solution is to pay constant attention to the inseparable nature of plot development and emotional development When you create any scene whether it s a police pursuit on the interstate or a heart to heart in the kitchen the emotional reasoning behind the scene has to be evident When you develop the emotional current that sustains the action you create a scene with heart and soul and you and your viewers are going to feel the passion
