the Handbook presents a systematic overview of political ecology's origins, practices and core concerns and aims to advance both ongoing and emerging debates. While there are numerous edited volumes, textbooks and monographs under the heading political ecology, these have tended to be relatively narrow in scope, either as collections of empirically based, mostly case study research on a given theme or broad overviews of the field aimed at undergraduate audiences. The Routledge Handbook of Political Ecology is the first systematic, comprehensive overview of the field. With authors from North and South America, Europe, Australia and elsewhere, the Handbook of Political Ecology provides a state-of-the-art examination of political ecology, addresses ongoing and emerging debates in this rapidly evolving field and charts new agendas for research, policy and activism. The Routledge Handbook of Political Ecology introduces political ecology as an interdisciplinary academic field. By presenting a state-of-the-art examination of the field, it will serve as an invaluable resource for students and scholars. It not only critically reviews the key debates in the field but develops them. The Handbook will serve as an excellent resource for graduate and advanced undergraduate teaching and is a key reference text for geographers, anthropologists, sociologists, environmental historians and others working in and around political ecology.

Food Tourism and Regional Development C. Michael Hall, Stefan Gössling, 2016-05-26 Food tourism is a topic of increasing importance for many destinations. Seen as a means to potentially attract tourists and differentiate destinations and attractions by means of the association with particular products and cuisines, food is also regarded as an opportunity to generate added value from tourism through local agricultural systems and supply chains and the local food system. From a regional development perspective, this book goes beyond culinary tourism to also look at some of the ways in which the interrelationships between food and tourism contribute to the economic, environmental and social wellbeing of destinations, communities and producers. It examines the way in which tourism and food can mutually add value for each other, from the fork to the plate and beyond. Looking at products, e.g. cheese, craft beer, noodles, wine, attractions, restaurants and events, and diverse regional examples, e.g. Champagne, Hong Kong, Jamaica, Margaret River, southern Sweden and Tuscany, the title highlights how clustering, networking and the cultural economy of food and tourism and foodscapes add value for regions. Despite the attention given to food, wine and culinary tourism, no book has previously directly focused on the contribution of food and tourism in regional development. This international collection has contributors and examples from almost every continent and provides a comprehensive account of the various intersections between food, tourism and regional development. This timely and significant volume will inform future food and tourism development as well as regional development more widely and will be valuable reading for a range of disciplines, including tourism development studies, food and culinary studies, regional studies, geography and environmental studies.

Black Iconography and Colonial (re)production at the ICC Stanley Mwangi Wanjiru, 2022-11-25 This book explores the reproduction of colonialism at the International Criminal Court ICC and examines international criminal law ICL vs the black body through an immersive format of art music poetry and architecture and post colonial critical race theory lens Taking a multi disciplinary approach the book interrogates the operationalisation of the Rome Statute to detail a Eurocentric hegemony at the core of ICL It explores how colonialism and slavery have come to shape ICL exposing the perpetuation of the colonial and warns that it has ominous contemporary and future implications for Africa As currently envisaged and acted out at the ICC this law is founded on deceptive and colonial ideas of what is wrong in with the world The book finds that the contemporary ICL regime is founded on white supremacy that corrupts the law s interaction with the African The African is but a unit utilised by the global elite to exploit and extract resources From time to time these alliances disintegrate with ICL becoming a retaliatory tool of choice What is at stake is power not justice This power has been hierarchical with Eurocentrism at the top throughout modern history Colonialism is seen not to have ended but to have regerminated through the foundation of the independent African state The ICC reproduces the colonial by use of European law and ultimately the over representation of the black accused To conclude the book provides a liberated African forum that can address conflicts in the content with a call for the end of the ICC s involvement in Africa The demand is made for an African court that utilises non colonising African norms which are uniquely suited to address local conflicts Multidisciplinary in nature this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of international criminal law criminal justice human rights law African studies global social justice sociology anthropology postcolonial studies and philosophy
