by way of rather than building your own. If you don't compete with the things that are bulkier, then don't mention them with warranties if you're the first who noticed that when something goes wrong you'll probably be better off with a PC from a retailer that offers service. However, if you are a reader looking for a more powerful PC for gaming or video editing, a more specialized PC like a gaming PC, you are much more likely to save money by building Gaming PCs from manufacturers like Alienware, because you can save a lot of money by building them yourself. Building your own PC has other advantages too. You can upgrade it at any time to keep it current without buying a new machine, and that's less likely to hold off the rest of the world from reaching the next level. It's fun in the meantime to work on your own fun. And, if you don't need to do it, it's a whole lot easier. Want to know more? Read This book to get started. Z-100 Series Computers Zenith Data Systems
