Abdel Latif,2020-12-16 This book provides a unique reference and comprehensive overview of the issues pertinent to conceptualizing measuring researching and nurturing writing motivation Abdel Latif covers these theoretical practical and research issues by drawing on the literature related to the eight main constructs of writing motivation writing apprehension attitude anxiety self efficacy self concept learning goals perceived value of writing and motivational regulation Specifically the book covers the historical research developments of the field the measures of the main writing motivation constructs the correlates and sources of writing motivation and profiles of motivated and demotivated writers The book also describes the types of the instructional research of writing motivation provides pedagogical guidelines and procedures for motivating students to write and presents suggestions for advancing writing motivation research measurement and pedagogy Detailed up to date and with a glossary which includes definitions of the main terms used in the six chapters this book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of language education applied linguistics psycholinguistics and educational psychology Let's Create Writers Timothy Horan,2021-10-21 In this book Dr Timothy Horan presents an original and highly effective writing program whose major goal is to transform middle school students into competent and confident writers This writing program is innovative rigorous and engaging and was designed with the student in mind This book contains a total of twenty original writing assignments ten for seventh grade and another ten for eighth grade These assignments are based on middle school students natural predilections and developmental levels and represent creative interpretations of the Common Core Writing Standards Each writing project in this book is full and complete and is described with clarity and simplicity Each assignment also includes a reproducible outline that presents the assignment to students in a simplified graphical format The pedagogical philosophy underlying this program is simple and effective It seeks to provide students with enjoyable writing assignments that students will understand learn from and complete As students progress through the program they will develop an upbeat emotional bond with the act of writing and will learn to approach composition with a sense of optimism and confidence Congressional Record United States. Congress,1996 A Distant Place Mark F. Harris,2002 This book is a compilation of the 230 best student essays submitted in English composition classes at the Teachers College of Qingdao University in Qingdao Shandong P R China during the spring semester of 2000 The stories were submitted to fulfill assignments given by American instructor Mark F Harris for his students to write about their grandparents parents family life and some of their own childhood and school experiences as well as to contemplate the future In doing research for the essays a few of the students had the good fortune to interview their grandparents while many more were able to question their parents They wrote about times of hardship sacrifice and deprivation They gave brief but graphic accounts of the Japanese invasion and occupation of China the War of Liberation and the founding of modern China the Cultural Revolution and of hardships associated with famine and poverty Some of the essays described the common relationships that exist in the traditional Chinese family In writing about themselves most students related memorable events of their normal carefree childhood They also mentioned encountering frustrations in their growing up and changing years and of competing with classmates in school activities Almost universally they wrote about the challenge of preparing for and passing the university entrance examination Many essays conveyed messages portraying strong cultural values such as honesty perseverance loyalty devotion justice and responsibility Stories depicting situations of great seriousness are balanced with those reflecting childhood innocence and humor The students wrote in English which is their second language Mr Harris quickly learned there was a unique style to their Chinese English They were able to superimpose English over their Chinese language and thought patterns resulting in writing with less precision and exactness when compared to American usage Yet beautiful imagery and poetic expressions seemed to flow naturally Even though the reader may have no knowledge of the Chinese language most probably he will unknowingly be reading Chinese when studying these essays A good example of this beautiful language is expressed in an essay by Liu Ranji James who concluded that a distant place is not only a concept of space it is a higher pursuit in spirit The pursuit will be endless since a distant place is like a beacon that guides my journey in life The title of the book comes from this essay since the pursuit described by the writer in many ways parallels the author s pursuit even in traveling to a distant place called China This timely collection of essays written by some of China s brightest young people gives clear insight into a way of life that properly needs to be recorded
