Biblical Exegesis in African Context Frederick Mawusi Amevenku, Isaac Boaheng, 2021-09-07 Biblical Exegesis in African Context explores how the Church in Africa can affirm its uniqueness in terms of the African identity and experiences and at the same time remain faithful to the gospel message The volume begins with an explanation of exegesis and hermeneutics and the agenda for the rest of the book is set The second chapter deals with textual criticism which is the task of determining the originality of a biblical text In chapter three issues related to the context of the text are considered after which the volume proceeds to examine the various literary forms present in the Bible prominent among them being Narrative Law Poetry Prophecy Wisdom Literature Gospels Acts of the Apostles Epistles and Revelation The authors then dedicate the next chapter to discussions on socio rhetorical interpretation The final chapters of the book deal with matters solely related to the context of Africa this part intends to equip readers to be able to interpret the Bible from African cultural perspectives and then apply the gospel message meaningfully to the life of African Christians Chapter seven deals with the emergence and historical development of African Biblical Studies ABS noting its relevance and how Africans can benefit from it The main contention of the chapter is that Africans will better understand and apply God s word to their lives if they read the Scriptures in an African way The volume then explores how African languages can be used to derive the meaning of scripture and apply it to real life situations Here the authors contribute to the development of MTBH by developing a methodological framework for this interpretative tool The next chapter of the volume deals with mother tongue theologizing in Ghana The final chapter considers the legitimacy of female leadership in the Church within the African context through the examination of two Pauline texts This volume will be of interest to undergraduate and graduate seminary students students of Biblical Interpretation in religions departments as well as practicing pastors
