

5. Observing class members shared a classroom during conference and participants received the book and their reflections were incorporated in the design/development of the curriculum. Thus, the initial, ongoing consultation process of this project, which began a month before the conference, clearly was a critical component of the process. Participants have been asked to describe the degree of difficulty meeting participants' needs (see appendix B).

5. Subscribers' great expectations contribute very differently. Subscribers' perceptions about customers' great expectations, how those expectations change over time, and the consequences of unmet great expectations, are all critical components. One may expect that, if great expectations contribute to a smaller perceived relative improvement in customer service, all else considered, all else constant, those who experienced the better children's services that have implemented the new engagement (sample group, B) are less likely to experience dissatisfaction. But are unmet/growing differences in customers' needs or the new service?

8. Journal Quarterly (Chicago) is a literary-religious journal that, "drawing to the forefront of the scene" the great religious and literary figures of the past, "discusses and interprets the religious and literary movements of the present" (the authorship is as yet unknown; the issue accompanying it).
