La France En Chine:

France/China Alex Hughes, 2018-12-13 China has long been an object of fascination for the French who celebrated their année de la Chine in 2004. Symptomatic of that fascination are the movements into China made by groups as diverse as the Jesuits who arrived in L'Empire du Milieu in the late seventeenth century and the Tel Quel intellectuals whose will to political pilgrimage took them there.

Britain, France, West Germany and the People's Republic of China, 1969-1982 Martin Albers, 2016-12-01 This book focuses on helping readers to fill the gap of the little known history between Western Europe and its most important trading partner the People's Republic of China. Inspired by the economic and political significance of Sino-European relations, this book shows how the China policies of the three biggest states of Western Europe: Britain, France, and the Federal Republic of Germany helped China reintegrate into the international community in the 1970s. Against the background of the Cold War, the end of Maoism, and the emergence of globalization, the governments in Bonn, Paris, and London had to find ways of dealing with Europe's declining influence and promote their own national interests in Asia. Based on newly declassified government files, readers will find such sources invaluable in understanding the argument that despite pursuing very different policies, the three governments supported a rapid expansion of peaceful exchange between the People's Republic and Europe and substantially contributed to the success of Beijing's reform policy.

Missions Étrangères de Paris (MEP) and China from the Seventeenth Century to the Present Ji Li, 2021-11-15 The first scholarly work on the subject by leading scholars in the field, Missions étrangères de Paris MEP and China examines the variety of ways in which MEP missionaries complemented and complicated Catholic Church and French engagement with Chinese society. Key players in the Church's overseas missions in the Far East, many MEP missionaries spent their entire lives working with ordinary Chinese. This volume explores the proactive engagement of MEP missionaries in Bible translation and cultural accommodation, their evangelization efforts in local communities, and the interaction between MEP representatives and various local groups. Each study in this book responds to one or more of the major themes in the history of Christianity in China that include conflicts, accommodations, indigenization, imperialism, and nationalism. Contributors are François Barriquand, Jean Charbonnier, Yanrong Chen, Lina Guo, Zhijie Kang, Ji Li, Matthieu Masson, Jean Paul Wiest, Qing Wu, Hongyan Xiang, Ernest Young, and Aidong Zhao.
