

INDEPENDENT READING #2: GENDER STUDIES LITERARY ANALYSIS ESSAY

INSTRUCTIONS: Choose one of the prompts below and answer it using the novel you chose for Independent Reading #2. Follow the format and structure of the literary analysis essay we have been studying all week long. Make sure to provide textual evidence – either direct quotes or specific details – in your composition. Our goal here is to practice writing a detailed, analytical essay under pressure with an academic voice and command of language and syntax (sentence structure).

Select a novel in which a character experiences such a rift and becomes cut off from “home,” whether that home is the character’s birthplace, family, homeland, or other special place. Then write an essay in which you analyze how the character’s experience with exile is both alienating and enriching, and how this experience illuminates the meaning of the work as a whole.

Frequently a work of literature will concern itself with a major transformation in a character. This transformation could be actual or symbolic. Choose a full-length work and write a well-organized essay in which you discuss the nature of the transformation and its relationship to character and theme.

Novel and plays often include scenes of weddings, funerals, parties, and other social occasions. Such scenes may reveal the values of the characters and the society in which they live. Select a novel or play that includes such a scene and, in a focused essay, discuss the contribution the scene makes to the meaning of the work as a whole.

Many novels and plays that focus upon the marriage of a couple included a second couple that helps to define the central characters. Write a well-centered essay in which you discuss how the secondary couple illuminates the central characters of the work.

Choose a character from a work of recognized literary merit and write an essay in which you (a) briefly describe the standards of the fictional society in which the character exists and (b) show how the character is affected by and responds to those standards. In your essay do not merely summarize the plot.

directors to stage Time and again they have been written off as unstageable by prominent theatre makers Further complications have arisen from the presence of a spectre of authority around Tagore and his plays often promoted by Visva Bharati the institution he founded and which held the copyright of his works till 2001 This book travels through time and space intending to untangle the enigma presented by Tagore's plays The book on one hand immerses itself into the archive of Tagore's plays and his dramaturgy of them in order to problematize the ways in which they have been interpreted On the other it also engages with productions of Tagore's plays during and after his life time to understand the challenges directors have faced while staging them and the strategies they have embraced to circumvent them While performing a subjective critical reading of the Tagore theatre archive an underlying objective of the book remains to understand the very concept of the archive as it manifests itself in contemporary dramatic theatre

Disruption in the Arts Lars Koch, Tobias Nanz, Johannes Pause, 2018-08-21 The volume examines from a comparative perspective the phenomenon of aesthetic disruption within the various arts in contemporary culture It assumes that the political potential of contemporary art is not solely derived from presenting its audiences with openly political content but rather from creating a space of perception and interaction using formal means a space that makes hegemonic structures of action and communication observable thus problematizing their self-evidence The contributions conceptualize historical and contemporary politics of form in the media which aim to be more than mere shock strategies which are concerned not just with the narcissistic exhibition of art as art but also with the creation of a new common horizon of experience They combine the analysis of paradigmatic works procedures and actions with reference to theoretical debates in the fields of literature media and art of the twentieth and twenty-first centuries The essay collection shows how textual visual auditive or performative strategies disclose their own ways of functioning intervene in automated processes of reception and thus work on stimulating a sense of political possibilities The editors acknowledge support from the European Union's Seventh Framework Program FP 7 2007-2013 ERC grant agreement no 312454
