

A FOOTBALL MOM

When some baby boys are born God gives their mothers a special blessing for He knows that, in time, they will become Football Moms.

Now, a football mom knows that next to God and country,
football is sacred.

She understands it is not the ups in life that count, but only the downs.

While other Mothers plan meals around the week's best food
bargains,

A Football Mom schedules dinners around practices, games,
victory parties, and defeat doldrums.

She learns early in the season the team jersey gets washed in Tide and Holy Water, and to carry a roll of Life Savers for those inevitable moments of defeat.

The latest fashion for a football mom consists of mud cake shoes, warm sweats, and a rain poncho made of Hefty bag.

She has been warned under penalty of divulging her real hair color to NEVER run onto the field if her son is injured.
Better he should die there from the blitz than the embarrassment.

She finds it hard to believe that as she stands on the sidelines, the baby who had to be fed every three hours because he was so small is now the husky linebacker the team depends upon.

While the kindergartner who clung to her hips so tightly that first day of school is now a jock who pretends he never laid eyes on that wild, cheering lady in the bleachers.

From the days of baby bonnets, to the afternoon football helmets, to Friday night Football under the lights, her memories are sprinkled with the penalties and touchdowns. Fame and fortune may elude her, but in the game of life she is a WINNER.

SHE is a FOOTBALL MOM

tugging and hilarious Myron Uhlberg's memoir tells the story of growing up as the hearing son of deaf parents and his life in a world that he found unaccountably beautiful even as he longed to escape it Does sound have rhythm my father asked Does it rise and fall like the ocean Does it come and go like the wind Such were the kinds of questions that Myron Uhlberg's deaf father asked him from earliest childhood in his eternal quest to decipher and to understand the elusive nature of sound Quite a challenge for a young boy and one of many he would face Uhlberg's first language was American Sign Language the first sign he learned I love you But his second language was spoken English and no sooner did he learn it than he was called upon to act as his father's ears and mouth in the stores and streets of the neighborhood beyond their silent apartment in Brooklyn Resentful as he sometimes was of the heavy burdens heaped on his small shoulders he nonetheless adored his parents who passed on to him their own passionate engagement with life These two remarkable people married and had children at the absolute bottom of the Great Depression an expression of extraordinary optimism and typical of the joy and resilience they were able to summon at even the darkest of times From the beaches of Coney Island to Ebbets Field where he watches his father's hero Jackie Robinson play ball from the branch library above the local Chinese restaurant where the odor of chow mein rose from the pages of the books he devoured to the hospital ward where he visits his polio afflicted friend this is a memoir filled with stories about growing up not just as the child of two deaf people but as a book loving mischief making tree climbing kid during the remarkably eventful period that spanned the Depression the War and the early fifties From the Hardcover edition
