Full Dark, No Stars Stephen King, 2011-09-20 I believe there is another man inside every man a stranger writes Wilfred Leland James in the early pages of the riveting confession that makes up 1922 the first in this pitch black quartet of mesmerizing tales from Stephen King For James that stranger is awakened when his wife Arlette proposes selling off the family homestead and moving to Omaha setting in motion a gruesome train of murder and madness In Big Driver a cozy mystery writer named Tess encounters the stranger along a back road in Massachusetts when she takes a shortcut home after a book club engagement Violated and left for dead Tess plots a revenge that will bring her face to face with another stranger the one inside herself Fair Extension the shortest of these tales is perhaps the nastiest and certainly the funniest Making a deal with the devil not only saves Dave Streeter from a fatal cancer but provides rich recompense for a lifetime of resentment When her husband of more than twenty years is away on one of his business trips Darcy Anderson looks for batteries in the garage Her toe knocks up against a box under a worktable and she discovers the stranger inside her husband It s a horrifying discovery rendered with bristling intensity and it definitively ends a good marriage Like Different Seasons and Four Past Midnight which generated such enduring films as The Shawshank Redemption and Stand by Me Full Dark No Stars proves Stephen King a master of the long story form
