Primary English: Knowledge and Understanding Jane Medwell,David Wray,George Moore,Vivienne Griffiths,2024-05-18 The essential subject knowledge text for primary English Secure subject knowledge and understanding is the foundation of confident creative and effective teaching The trainee teacher s guide to all the subject knowledge required to teach primary English Includes practical and reflective tasks to help deepen your understanding and self assessment tests to check your knowledge and identify areas where more study is needed This 10th edition has been updated throughout and is now linked to the ITT Core Content Framework      Cross-language Mediation in Foreign Language Teaching and Testing Maria Stathopoulou,2015 This book contributes to the growing field of foreign language teaching and testing by shedding light on mediation between languages Focusing on cross language mediation as translanguaging practice the book explores what mediation entails the processes involved and the challenges mediators face      Multilingual Testing and Assessment Gessica De Angelis,2021-09-06 The field of multilingual testing and assessment has grown rapidly in recent years due to the widespread need to integrate immigrant populations into mainstream education and to provide fair and equitable forms of assessment for all students. However, a continuing emphasis on bilingual students has created a significant gap in testing and assessment research. This book addresses the need for research and guidance on testing multilingual students at its heart is the difference between designing multilingual tests and testing multilingual individuals. The author introduces an integrated approach to testing and assessment, a flexible approach that combines information about multilingual learners' knowledge, skills, and abilities with information about their language background and living environment. The book provides an overview of existing research conducted with multilingual populations, provides guidelines for test writers, teachers, and educators that outline the steps involved in the design, administration, scoring, and interpretation of tests for multiple language speakers, and demonstrates how to use the integrated approach to testing and assessment in a multilingual educational context.

Sick Schools David V. Anderson, 2020-01-10 Who's afraid of for-profit education? Those who work in non-profit or government-owned and operated schools. Many parents and other stakeholders have been made fearful by this education establishment. What's more important to humans: nutrition or education? Nutrition is more important because it is the prerequisite for other human activities, including education. What organizations provide food, and who pays for the food? Food is provided by for-profit farmers, for-profit processors, for-profit wholesalers, and for-profit retailers. Most food is purchased with the consumer's own money, but a significant amount is purchased by low-income individuals using food stamps. Why can't education be provided similarly using education stamps? We trust for-profit enterprises to provide our food. Why can't we trust for-profit enterprises to provide K-12 education? Fear-mongers have frightened us and made us into gullible, compliant socialists who despise commercial activities in education. Go to the supermarket and ponder its marvelous array of foods, and then contemplate how a for-profit K-12 education sector would please and amaze its customers.

Language Teachers at Work Zhan Li, 2020-06-13 This book examines a ubiquitous yet under-researched area of language education: i.e., language teachers' use of curriculum materials. It particularly focuses on EFL teachers' use of prescribed curriculum materials in higher education in Mainland China and presents a qualitative multi-case study involving four Chinese EFL teachers and eight students (two students from each teacher's class) at one university in Mainland China. Drawing on data from pre-lesson and post-lesson interviews with the teachers, lesson observations, and documents in three consecutive semesters at the target university, the book delineates the processes of materials use in classroom settings. It also identifies four domains of factors that influenced the enactment of curriculum materials. Most importantly, by adopting Vygotsky's 1978 mediation theory and Remillard's 2005 participatory perspective, the book constructs a curriculum enactment mediation model to reveal the complex and mediated relations among teachers, learners, curriculum materials, and context. It also recommends practical implications for materials developers, teacher educators, administrators, and policymakers.
