QUESTION 1

An open space heated in a building is heated by 10 radiators. A table shows data for the radiators in the building. The table shows the first 10 days the owner of the building recorded the temperature at 11:00 and the number of cups of hot drinks sold. The information is presented in the table and scatter plot below.

Temperature (in $^{\circ}\text{C}$)	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23
Number of hot drinks sold	600	200	100	500	300	400	200	100	200	200

- 1.1 Describe the trend of the data. (2)
 - 1.2 Determine the equation of the best square regression line for the data. (2)
 - 1.3 The owner observed that the hot water was free of sale for many days of hot drinks sold. If the temperature at 11:00 on the 17th day was reported as the 17th $^{\circ}\text{C}$, predict the number of hot drinks sold with the owner should pay for the 17th day. (2)
 - 1.4 Identify an outlier in the data. (1)

System Recall Alma Harris,Michelle S. Jones,2019-10-17 This book argues that much of what passes as contemporary educational reform in education is faulty and damaging It argues that it is time for a system recall and a need to look at what matters most in the pursuit of educational goals The book focuses on what we know about contemporary educational improvement transformation and change It will provide insights into what strategies work long term to build the capacity for principled change at the school and system level The book will consider what leaders can do to secure principled school and system improvement which fully embraces diversity equity and equality It will also dispel some myths about reform at scale and challenge some prevailing ideas about educational change that it will be posited are not helping many young people to reach their potential The main argument of the book is that too many school and system improvement initiatives have not paid sufficient attention to equity issues in their pursuit of ever higher achievement and that the net effect of large scale international assessments have been to distract policy makers in ways that have not always benefitted young people The book will use system examples to underpin and exemplify six core ways of re botting the system and generating progress for all It will highlight the implications for school and system leaders Resources in Education ,1988 Official Gazette
