The Russian State and Russian Energy Companies, 1992-2018 Ingerid M. Opdahl, 2020-06-09 The Russian State and Russian Energy Companies analyses the development of relations between the state and five major energy companies and how this shaped Russia's foreign policy in the post Soviet region The book argues that the development of Russia's political economy mattered for foreign policy over the quarter of a century from 1992 to 2018 Energy companies roles in institutional development enabled them to influence foreign policy formation and they became available as tools to implement foreign policy The extent to which it happened for each company varied with their accessibility to the Russian state Institutional development increased state capacity in a way that strengthened Russia's political regime The book shows how the combined power of several companies in the gas oil electricity and nuclear energy industry was a key feature of Russian foreign policy both in bilateral relationships and in support of Russia's regional position In this way Russia's energy resources were converted to regional influence The book contributes to our understanding of Russia's political economy and its influence on foreign policy and of the formation of policy towards post Soviet states

Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia Yong-Shik Lee, 2023-09-05 Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia examines the causes of lasting and complex tensions in the region from underlying political historical military and economic perspectives discusses their historical development and political economic implications for the world and explores possible solutions to build lasting peace The book is unique in that it approaches the topic from the historical perspective of each constituent country in the region Major global powers such as the United States and Russia have also closely engaged in the political and economic affairs of this region through a network of alliances diplomacy trade and investment The book also discusses the influence of these external powers over the crisis their political and economic objectives in the region their strategies and the dynamics that their engagement has created Both South Korea and North Korea have sought reunification of the Korean peninsula which will have a substantial impact on the region The book examines its justification feasibility and effects for the region The book discusses the role of Mongolia in the context of the power dynamics in Northeast Asia A relatively small country in terms of its population Mongolia has rarely been examined in this context Sustainable Peace in Northeast Asia makes a fresh assessment of its potential role
