Ruptured Walk Lunko,2021-12-15 Conflict is an inherent part of life The ruptured Walk not only evokes the narrator protagonist s personal family and spiritual life It brilliantly and expertly gives us a gaze into the heart of a woman whose search for peace and justice brings her almost to a cataclysmic end Her vistas takes the reader into her confidence as she confides how the pulpit is used to subject the congregants into kowtowing to the pastor s authority and those who dare see it as an object of oppression are tried and cast out as silly tedious deviates She gently reflects that behind an indomitable character she is known to be still stands a fallible person who battles with some of the choices she has made In her pursuit to self correct she becomes a lone voice trying to dissuade others from falling prey to the same unfortunate fate she suffered This sends her into the tradition of renegades as viewed through the eyes of the pastor The animosity between the pastor and our protagonist culminates in the decision of her viewing family relations rather than money This view compels the reader to decide on his or her own virtues what comes first between church money and family In the end the narrative talks to the name of the book why the author chose not to name it Rapture which means a feeling of intense pleasure rather a rupture that means break away Once again the woman s decision is against the popular norm The author expertly takes us through Mehlole s conflicting personal and popular view and she elects the antonym of union deciding to break away in a complex yet narratively sequential the theme of the story lends itself with ease to the name

The Educational Hopes and Ambitions of Left-Behind Children in Rural China

Yang Hong,2021-10-15 This monograph highlights the educational experiences of rural children who are left behind by their migrant worker parents in China analyzing how this situation impacts on their aspirations and self identity Via an ethnographic and qualitative case study of a rural school in southwest China the author presents the real lives of these disadvantaged children along with their challenges and needs and provides an in depth understanding of how being left behind impacts on their future aspirations Building on the sociological theories of Pierre Bourdieu the author makes an original contribution by combining seemingly incompatible disciplinary perspectives such as cultural capital from sociology rational action from behavioral economics and self efficacy from psychology Hence the book endeavors to transfer these Western theories to an Eastern context and demonstrates cultural nuances that are not always captured when applied in the West The book will attract academic scholars and postgraduate students in the area of socially disadvantaged children and young people as well as those who are working on youth studies and rural education Baseball America 2016 Prospect Handbook John Manuel,2016-04-05 Baseball America s Prospect Handbook is quite simply the only source you need to find out about the future stars of baseball Baseball America made its name on finding the best players as amateurs and following them through the minors on the way to the big leagues and the Prospect Handbook is the compendium that brings it all together You ll get the Top 30 Prospects for all 30 major league teams with comprehensive scouting reports on every player You ll also get a wealth of other information about each team to give you an idea of where the organization has been and where it s going It s no accident that you ll find the Prospect Handbook on the desk of every general manager in baseball Join them in getting the information edge Minerals Yearbook ,1992 The Intersection of International Achievement Testing and Educational Policy Louis Volante,2016-06-10 Educational systems around the world look to student assessment programs as they initiate reforms and revise educational policies to increase student achievement This edited volume examines the intersection of international achievement testing and education policy development in key countries around the world exploring how assessments can inform curriculum pedagogy strategic planning and ultimately determine large scale education policy and governance Noted chapter contributors explore how educational leadership and governance issues have been influenced by assessment programs across a range of political economic cultural and educational contexts The Intersection of International Achievement Testing and Education Policy provides educators academics and policymakers with cultural insights historical contexts and a framework for negotiating and understanding the consequences of educational policy decisions in schools The End Of Earth Philip N. Moore,2024-11-01 In this eye opening exploration discover how Moses ancient prophecies on Israel the coming of Jesus and the End Times have striking connections to modern day events Delve into how these timeless predictions align with the unexpected rise of Donald Trump Nostradamus cryptic visions and the eerie legacy of the Kennedy curse With meticulous research this book unravels a complex web of prophetic clues leading to the conclusion that the mystery surrounding the assassination of JFK and its aftermath has finally been solved Prepare to be astonished as you uncover the undeniable threads that tie together history s greatest mysteries with prophetic foresight Is it coincidence or is there a higher plan at work Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 3)

Awards ... First Division, National Railroad Adjustment Board United States. National Railroad Adjustment Board, Drowning by Accident Elizabeth Meinhard, 2022-02-15 Drowning By Accident explains why it is so easy to drown where accidents happen and how to save lives by early rescue and resuscitation More than 600 people die by drowning in Britain every year Swimming is promoted as a particularly safe form of exercise so that swimmers forget or ignore the dangers of frigid lakes swollen rivers incoming tides or outgoing rip currents Drowning accidents take place because we don't recognise water as a hostile environment We overestimate the strength and endurance of our bodies and underestimate the power and deceptiveness of water Year after year victims lose their lives in typical drowning accidents often sinking so quickly and silently that nearby family friends and onlookers fail to notice the tragedy taking place close beside them Babies drown in baths Toddlers drown in garden ponds School children fall off rafts Teenagers strike too far from the shore Pensioners wade into rivers to save their dogs Victims often die within minutes of sinking beneath the surface A quarter of those who reach hospital alive will also die while others survive with severe permanent brain damage This means that it is vitally important for parents grandparents teachers lifeguards and lawmakers to recognise the risks and prevent drowning accidents before they take place
