the growing academic discipline of food and agricultural tourism offering the first multidisciplinary approach to food tourism and the role it plays in economic development destination marketing and gastronomic exploration It provides a comprehensive introduction to the discipline by considering food tourism in connection with both cultural values and important issues in agriculture food consumption and safety and rural heritage and sustainability The book is divided into four Parts Part I defines the elements of food tourism and explains its relationship with sustainability Part II provides an overview of rural development and demonstrates the impact of industrialization and globalization on eating habits Part III focuses on food tourism studies and market segmentation techniques to help students understand customer needs regarding food tourism products Finally Part IV looks at the financial policy and legal requirements relating to food tourism development providing hands on tools for students entering food tourism businesses or industries Complemented by a wide range of international case studies key definitions and study questions Food and Agricultural Tourism is essential reading for students of tourism geography and economic development studies The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Travel and Tourism Linda L. Lowry,2016-09 Taking a global and multidisciplinary approach The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Travel and Tourism examines the world travel and tourism industry which is expected to grow at an annual rate of four percent for the next decade Fashion and Tourism Maria Gravari-Barbas,Nadzeya Sabatini,2023-12-14 Fashion and tourism have common structures and similarities on many fronts Both phenomena and their operations have been through their mass cycles currently seeking alternative ways of expression and development Both industries are also important business sectors globally The Rise of Africa'S Small & Medium Size Enterprises Dr. Robin Renee Sanders,2017-02-08 Ambassador Dr Robin Renee Sanders new book on The Rise of Africas Small Medium Size Enterprises SMEs is an insightful examination of the dramatic shift in the development paradigm for Sub Saharan Africa driven in large part by the imaginative innovative and insta impact leadership of the regions small businesses or SMEs SMEs have helped drive economic development growth and aided in increasing the size of the Continents middle class Sanders says With the Introduction to the book by renown civil rights leader Ambassador Andrew Young and the Foreword by Sub Saharan Africas leading businessman Mr Aliko Dangote Sanders book credits the determination of Africa SMEs and entrepreneurs which includes African nationals immigrants and African Americans for stepping into the void left by 40 years of post independence development approaches that had little impact on reducing overall poverty and creating jobs in the region Africas dynamic entrepreneurial spirit of Generation Xers and Millennials are and have formed SMEs and social enterprises that today are responsible for conceiving and inventing many of the new apps and answers to address the regions age old poverty issues Sanders emphasizes Africa SMEs are not only a key driver for jobs but serve as an additional catalyst to grow the middle class Sanders argues that it was the Rise of the Africa SME converging with technology and its mobility that has changed over the last decade the focus and direction of development in Sub Saharan Africa The book has a few vignettes from Sanders diplomatic life and work as CEO of the FEEEDS Advocacy Initiative with Africa SMEs over the years as well as regional examples of some of innovative things Africa entrepreneurs are doing in sectors ranging from agriculture and food security to energy and climate change The book also walks readers through what donors foundations and African stock markets are doing today to help in the SME space Sanders ends with recommendations of what more can be done by donors African governments and the new U S administration to further assist Africa SMEs particularly the group she calls the critical mass and those at the fragile end of Africas middle class Marketing Management in the Hospitality Industry Robert D. Reid,David C. Bojanic,2018 Political Ecology of Tourism Mary Mostafanezhad,Roger Norum,Eric J.

Shelton, Anna Thompson-Carr, 2016-01-08 Why has political ecology been assigned so little attention in tourism studies despite its broad and critical interrogation of environment and politics As the first full length treatment of a political ecology of tourism the collection addresses this lacuna and calls for the further establishment of this emerging interdisciplinary subfield Drawing on recent trends in geography anthropology and environmental and tourism studies Political Ecology of Tourism Communities Power and the Environment employs a political ecology approach to the analysis of tourism through three interrelated themes Communities and Power Conservation and Control and Development and Conflict While geographically broad in scope with chapters that span Central and South America to Africa and South Southeast and East Asia to Europe and Greenland the collection illustrates how tourism related environmental challenges are shared across prodigious geographical distances while also attending to the nuanced ways they materialize in local contexts and therefore demand the historically situated place based and multi scalar approach of political ecology This collection advances our understanding of the role of political economic and environmental concerns in tourism practice It offers readers a political ecology framework from which to address tourism related issues and themes such as development identity politics environmental subjectivities environmental degradation land and resources conflict and indigenous ecologies Finally the collection is bookended by a pair of essays from two of the most distinguished scholars working in the subfield Rosaleen Duffy foreword and James Igoe afterword This collection will be valuable reading for scholars and practitioners alike who share a critical interest in the intersection of tourism politics and the environment
