[Supervisor name],

I sincerely appreciate the opportunity to have served during the last [number of years] as a vital member of the [management company name] team. My focus and dedication have resulted in many accomplishments that have continued to build [community name]. I have high expectations for the success to continue for the foreseeable future.

During the past year, I took on extra work and more responsibilities because I know that my performance is closely tied to the team's performance. Here are some highlights of how I have improved the company in the past year:

- Ideally, bullet 1-5 items where you have saved the property money or made the organization/particular unit money.
- Use quantitative data and numbers to prove growth, when possible.

In light of my accomplishments, I am respectfully requesting a pay raise of $____ annually, to start [date].

I strongly feel that I have earned this pay raise. If you do not feel that way, I understand.

However, I would like for you to give me a path, to reach my goals and achieve an annual income I feel I deserve.

If you would like to meet to discuss this, please let me know.

Please know that I am well aware of the multitude of non-monetary benefits this job offers, and am extremely grateful for your generosity. It is nice to have a supervisor that fully trusts and stands behind my choices and decisions. I view my increase in responsibilities as an act of trust in my abilities and belief in my potential. This only increases my self-confidence, and is a driving force to my never-ending quest to deliver the best results.

Thank you again for the opportunity to work with you. I look forward to continuing to be a key player on your team, in a mutually rewarding relationship. I love working for [management company name], and will continue to do my best for you and the company.

Sincerely,

Your name

Salaries in the Public Services in England and Wales Hilda R. Kahn,2024-09-18 Originally published in 1964 at a time of much public unease regarding redundancy this book contains the results of a comprehensive survey inspired by a suggestion of the then Minister of Labour that the mass redundancies in the Midlands motor industry of 1956 merited a full scale investigation The findings are based on an analysis of a 1 in 10 sample of men made redundant in Birmingham in the period Among the matters examined are the difficulties encountered in obtaining work after redundancy the range of geographical mobility and the role played by the then employment exchanges in securing new employment Other chapters focus on the financial hardship caused the resort to savings and the impact of the redundancies on the gender balance in the workforce The impact of the dismissals on trade union affiliation is also considered as are the men s verdicts on the fairness of the selection procedure adopted School ,1924 Congressional Record United States. Congress,2004 Family Doctors and Public Policy John R. Butler,J. M. Bevan,R. C. Taylor,2025-08-01 Originally published in 1973 this book investigates the spatial distribution of General Practitioners GPs via the Designated Area Allowance DAA which was introduced in England

amid controversy in 1966 It analyses the effectiveness of the DAA and presents the results of a survey conducted among general practitioners in England covering the patterns of geographical mobility among GPs the relationship between choice of practice area and other connections with the locality It also discusses the professional and personal differences between GPs in areas which are well served with GPs and those which are not The book provides an important historical discussion of the inequalities in the distribution of general practitioners in England in the late twentieth century
