The Teaching and Learning of Xhosa as a Foreign Language in South African Schools and Universities with Special Reference to Efforts Being Made to Speak, Read, and Write the Language C. Z. Gebeda, 1975 Papers R.P., 1963 The Education Gazette of the Province of the Cape of Good Hope, 1982 Relanguaging Language from a South

African Township School Lara-Stephanie Krause-Alzaidi, 2021-12-20 Using data from a long term ethnographic study of English language classrooms in a South African township this book highlights linguistic expertise in a setting where it is not usually expected or sought Rather than being peripheral and unskilled South African township teachers and learners emerge as skilled re languagers central to the workings of South African education and to our understanding of how language classrooms work This book foregrounds the heterogeneity flexibility and creativity of day to day language practices that African urban spaces are known for and conceptualises language teaching not as a progression from one fixed language to another but as a circular sorting process between linguistic heterogeneity languaging and homogeneity a standard language

Department,1976 Multilingualism, Education and Social Integration Pol Cuvelier,Theo Du Plessis,Lut Teck,2003 This is a title for educationists language planners and managers in education researchers and students preparing for a career in education Language in education policy is probably one of the most contested issues in multilingual countries

Changing Teaching, Changing Times Jonathan Clark,Cedric J. Linder,2006 This is the story of a science teacher and her work in an over crowded and under resourced township secondary school in contemporary South Africa While set firmly in the present it is also a journey into the past shedding fresh light on how the legacy of apartheid education continues to have a major influence on teaching and learning in South Africa The book has a compelling story line with extensively referenced notes at the end of each chapter It is intended for a wide audience which includes general readers policy makers teacher educators researchers and most importantly practitioners in the field For while it reminds us of the powerful constraining role that both context and students play in mediating a teacher s practice it also attests to the power of individual agency As such it is a celebration of the actions of an ordinary teacher whose willingness to leave the well worn paths of familiar practice stands as a beacon of possibility for contexts which seem so often to be devoid of hope World Yearbook of Education 2003 Jill Bourne,Euan Reid,2003-12-16 The issues raised by the role of language in education are some of the most important and contentious faced by education systems across the globe Language is embedded in the concepts of nationhood and identity and is therefore directly linked to the very social and political fabric of a country In a climate of increasing globalisation development and mobility of populations nations around the world are concerned with the tension between cultivating a sense of cultural and linguistic cohesion and making use of the linguistic diversity that exists in every country and region This book examines the implications and impacts the dilemmas and potential for language education in relation to education systems and wider society Split into three key parts it considers current issues in language education including the role of language in maintaining power and inequalities in encouraging participation and inclusion and in challenging the status quo different approaches to language education around the world the potential for language to provide opportunities for the disadvantaged illustrated by case studies of three cities This recent volume of the internationally respected World Yearbook of Education continues the tradition of offering a wide range of international perspectives from leading commentators on a universal concern The material amassed here will be essential reading for teacher educators education researchers and school leaders across the world

Decolonisation, Globalisation Angel Lin, Peter Martin, 2005-07-04 This volume brings together scholars from around the world to juxtapose the voices of classroom participants alongside the voices of ruling elites with the aim of critically linking language policy issues with classroom practice in a range of contexts The volume is suitable for postgraduate students researchers and educators in a range of areas

Debates of the Transkei Legislative Assembly Transkei (South Africa). Legislative Assembly, Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa - Highlights from a Project ,2010-01-01 This book is based on chapters in a series of four books from the first five years 2002 2006 of the Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA project LOITASA is a NUFU funded Norwegian University Fund project which began in January 2002 and will continue through to the end of 2011 The chapters reflect the state of the research at the end of the first five years of LOITASA in 2006 and were selected by reviewers independent of the project The selection of chapters brought together bring to the forefront the dilemmas facing developing countries as they seek to position themselves in an increasingly interconnected global system while at the same time maintaining a sense of national and regional identity The chapters in this collection reflect both positive outcomes when the medium of instruction is a widely known language as well as the challenges of mother tongue instruction in countries where historically a powerful language like English has dominated The four LOITASA books in this series from which the chapters in this book are drawn are Language of instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA published by E Zubeida Desai the South African project leader and Martha Qorro who is on the project steering committee in Tanzania Literacy and Democracy in South African Primary Schools Getahun Yacob Abraham, Mary Alice Barksdale, 2017-12-20 Literacy and Democracy in South African Primary Schools presents findings based on two research projects conducted in South African primary schools during the same time frame Working from the South African Foundation Phase curriculum that was introduced in 2009 the first project focused on the introduction of leadership qualities and the election of classroom representatives in 3rd grade classes in four elementary schools The other introduced process based writing to teachers and researched the process and products of children s stories The book describes research experiences from the field provides a brief overview of the history of the South African education system and looks ahead to the future transformation of global educational systems Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa (LOITASA) Birgit Brock-Utne, Zubeida Desai, Martha Qorro, 2003 This book covers research findings on the language and education situations in Tanzania and South Africa It outlines the policies governing language of instruction for education in the two countries and assesses the extent to which existing policies are being implemented It presents the history of the development of language policies in the two countries and considers how they are actually working in practice at classroom level The contributors further consider the economic viabilities of language policies and the necessity to rationalise languages and dialects for education purposes
