Religion in the Making Arie L. Molendijk, Peter Pels, 2018-11-13 This volume explores the ways in which religion became the object of scientific research in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Most obvious is the development of an increasingly autonomous science of religion with founding fathers like Max Müller and C P Tiele However within anthropology Tylor Frazer sociology Durkheim Max Weber and psychology William James religion also came to be seen as a separate entity to be studied comparatively To capture this wide field this book focuses on the emergence of the discourse on religion in a broad academic context among different disciplines The emphasis is on general socio historical developments rather than on individual biographies Part I deals with the institutionalization of science of religion in France Britain and the Netherlands Part II focuses on boundary disputes between the emerging sciences of religion Part III examines new conceptualizations of religion underlying the new endeavour ritual magic survival A Technology of Health Manpower Utilization ,1972
