entertainment might make amends for the company's attention she began in the following manner: The history of Leonora, or the unfortunate jilt. LEONORA was the daughter of a gentleman of fortune; she was tall and well shaped with a sprightliness in her countenance which often attracts beyond more regular features joined with an insipid air; nor is this kind of beauty less apt to deceive than allure the good humour which it indicates being often mistaken for good nature and the vivacity for true understanding. Leonora who was now at the age of eighteen lived with an aunt of hers in a town in the north of England. She was an extreme lover of gaiety and very rarely missed a ball or any other public assembly.
