

The illustration depicts two figures from behind, walking along a path that leads towards a distant, dark mountain range. On the left, an elderly man with a white beard and balding head is dressed in a white tunic and sandals. He carries a wooden staff in his right hand and a brown leather satchel slung over his left shoulder. To his right, a younger person with long dark hair, wearing a red hoodie and blue jeans, walks in the same direction. The landscape is a vast, green field under a dark, overcast sky. In the background, a long, low stone wall or bridge spans the width of the scene, with several tall, thin, grey pillars or chimneys rising from it. The entire scene is framed by a large, dark, stylized arch that resembles a bridge or a frame. In the corners of this frame are mathematical symbols: a plus sign (+) in the top left, a division sign (÷) in the top right, a flower-like symbol in the bottom left, and a single horizontal line in the bottom right.
