School Library Journal ,2010 Library Youth Outreach Kerol Harrod,2014-01-23 With tightened library budgets the norm librarians run the risk of cutting back so much that they isolate themselves from their patrons and their communities This doesn t have to happen The outreach methods detailed in this book range from simple actions to detailed processes Each of the 26 chapters provides helpful information for both those new to library outreach and those with years of experience Positive Classroom Management Skills for School Librarians Kay Bishop,Jenny Cahall,2012-01-16 Some students are more challenging than most This book helps school librarians prevent deal with and overcome discipline problems they may face when communicating with K 12 students Positive Classroom Management Skills for School Librarians is a rich highly needed collection of strategies and methods for building and maintaining a positive learning environment in the library classroom Appropriate for both pre service and practicing school librarians at all grade levels this book provides suggested techniques and examples of best practices for managing students in a school library This invaluable information has been obtained from observations of school librarians and from discussions with pre service students and based upon coauthor Kay Bishop's 20 years of experience as a school librarian in various library settings. Specific topics covered include establishing positive relationships between students and school librarians, characteristics of students in different grade levels, techniques that librarians can use for effectively managing students in the school library, ways to relate with diverse students including students with special needs, managing students as they utilize technology in library settings, and designing a school library environment to avoid potential discipline problems.

Augmented and Virtual Reality in Libraries Jolanda-Pieta van Arnhem, Christine Elliott, Marie Rose, 2018-05-24. Augmented and Virtual Reality in Libraries is written for librarians by librarians understanding that diverse communities use libraries, museums, and archives for a variety of different reasons. Many current books on this topic have a very technological focus on augmentation and are aimed towards computer programmers with advanced technology skills. This book makes augmented reality, virtual reality, and mixed reality applications much more accessible to professionals without extensive technology backgrounds. This innovative title touches on possible implementation projects and assessment needs for both academic and public libraries, museums, and archives.

Management And Leadership Innovations Anne Woodsworth, W. David Penniman, 2014-06-04. Vol 38 of Advances in Librarianship focuses on innovative leadership and management techniques, e.g., selecting new team members, service design, mindful leadership, burnout causes, and management of librarians as independent active public leaders, and how libraries and other non-profit organizations can use UN's Agenda 21 to achieve sustainability.

E-Learning and the Academic Library Scott Rice, Margaret N. Gregor, 2016-05-09. Focusing on academic libraries and librarians who are extending the boundaries of e-learning, this collection of essays presents new ways of using information and communication technologies to create learning experiences for a variety of user communities. Essays feature e-learning projects involving MOOCs, massive open online courses, augmented reality, chatbots, and other innovative applications. Contributors describe the process of project development from determination of need to exploration of tools, project design, and user assessment.

Library Services and Incarceration Jeanie Austin, 2021-11-17. As part of our mission to enhance learning and ensure access to information for all library patrons, our profession needs to come to terms with the consequences of mass incarceration, which have saturated the everyday lives of people in the United States and heavily impacts Black Indigenous and people of color, LGBTQ people, and people who are in poverty. Jeanie Austin, a librarian with San Francisco Public Library's Jail and Reentry Services program, helms this important contribution to the discourse, providing tools applicable in a variety of settings. This text covers practical information about services in public and academic libraries and libraries in juvenile detention centers, jails, and prisons, while contextualizing these services for LIS classrooms and interdisciplinary scholars. It powerfully advocates for rethinking the intersections between librarianship and carceral systems, pointing the way towards different possibilities. This clear-eyed text begins with an overview of the convergence of library and information science and carceral systems within the United States, summarizing histories of information access and control such as book banning and the ongoing work of incarcerated people.

and community members to gain more access to materials examines the range of carceral institutions and their forms including juvenile detention jails immigration detention centers adult prisons and forms of electronic monitoring draws from research into the information practices of incarcerated people as well as individual accounts to examine the importance of information access while incarcerated shares valuable case studies of various library systems that are currently providing both direct and indirect services including programming book clubs library spaces roving book carts and remote reference provides guidance on collection development tools and processes discusses methods for providing reentry support through library materials and programming from customized signage and displays to raising public awareness of the realities of policing and incarceration gives advice on supporting community groups and providing outreach to transitional housing includes tips for building organizational support and getting started with advice on approaching library management creating procedures for challenges ensuring patron privacy and how to approach partners who are involved with overseeing the functioning of the carceral facility and concludes with a set of next steps recommended reading and points of reflection
