Supervision Essentials for the Critical Events in Psychotherapy Supervision Model Nicholas Ladany, Myrna L. Friedlander, Mary Lee Nelson, 2016 For many therapists conflict with their clients whether overt or subtle can be a frustrating impediment to change The same is true for clinical supervisors who must juggle trainees relationships with their clients alongside the complex and often charged interactions that take place during the supervisory hour This book provides a blueprint to help supervisors navigate the most challenging dilemmas and conflicts that arise in the supervisory process These include addressing skill deficits and competency concerns working through role conflicts and ethnicity and gender related misunderstandings Because these interpersonal dilemmas can be so challenging they often represent a golden opportunity for real progress in psychotherapy and supervision alike With the aid of detailed and compelling case examples the authors present a process model that offers specific strategies such as exploration of feelings focus on self efficacy and attention to parallel processes that together enable supervisors and trainees to successfully resolve the problem at hand and achieve lasting success This theoretically grounded text is appropriate for supervisors and trainees of all theoretical orientations

Supervision Essentials for Cognitive-behavioral Therapy Cory Frank Newman, Danielle Alissa Kaplan, 2016 In this concise guide Cory F Newman and Danielle A Kaplan offer an evidence based approach to supervising practitioners of cognitive behavioral therapy that is based on two key concepts feedback that focuses on both strengths and weaknesses and demonstrations such as role playing exercises and videos of the supervisor s work with clients that model experiential knowledge Using helpful case examples including excerpts from real supervision sessions with real clinicians in training Newman and Kaplan show how trainees can learn to think like effective CBT practitioners whether conceptua

Supervision Essentials for the Integrative Developmental Model Brian McNeill, Cal D. Stoltenberg, 2015 Some clinicians use a simple master apprentice approach to supervision others utilize tools from their preferred model of psychotherapy In this book Brian McNeill and Cal Stoltenberg offer supervisors and trainees a different approach their integrative developmental model of supervision This empirically tested model incorporates elements of cognitive models schema and skill development interpersonal influence and social intelligence alongside models of human development to create a truly eclectic and time tested approach to clinical supervision The authors model tracks therapists development across all skill levels and theoretical orientations Students and trainees are evaluated across domains of practice that include intervention skills competence assessment techniques individual differences treatment plans and goals and professional ethics among others The authors provide clear guidelines for progression from beginner levels highly motivated trainees who remain highly dependent on the supervisor to more advanced supervisees who are better attuned to individual differences in clients and seek more sophisticated clinical responses all the way to master level therapists The book also offers analyses of the authors supervisory sessions with real clinical trainees including those documented in the companion DVD The Integrative Developmental Model of Supervision R
