

FAFSA®

FREE APPLICATION for FEDERAL STUDENT AID

July 1, 2015 – June 30, 2016

Federal Student Aid

AN OFFICE OF THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

PROUD SPONSOR of the AMERICAN WIND®

Use this form to apply free for federal and state student grants, work-study, and loans.

Or apply free online at www.fafsa.gov.

Applying by the Deadlines

For federal aid, submit your application as early as possible, but no earlier than January 1, 2015. We must receive your application no later than June 30, 2016. Your college must have your correct, complete information by your last day of enrollment in the 2015-2016 school year.

For state or college aid, the deadline may be as early as January 2015. See the table to the right for state deadlines. You may also need to complete additional forms.

Check with your high school guidance counselor or a financial aid administrator at your college about state and college sources of student aid and deadlines.

If you are filing close to one of these deadlines, we recommend you file online at www.fafsa.gov. This is the fastest and easiest way to apply for aid.

Using Your Tax Return

We recommend that you complete and submit your FAFSA as soon as possible on or after January 1, 2015. If you (or your parents) need to file a 2014 income tax return with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and have not done so yet, you can submit your FAFSA

Edward Alden,Rebecca Strauss,2016-02-01 American leadership in the world is built on the foundation of its economic strength Yet the United States faces enormous economic competition abroad and threats to its economy at home In How America Stacks Up Economic Competitiveness and U S Policy Edward Alden Bernard L Schwartz senior fellow at the Council on Foreign Relations and director of the Renewing America initiative and Rebecca Strauss associate director of Renewing America focus on those areas of economic policy that are the most important for reinforcing America's competitive strengths Covering education transportation trade and investment corporate tax worker retraining regulation debt and deficits and innovation How America Stacks Up shows how in a highly competitive global economy these seemingly domestic issues are all crucial to U S success in the global economy The line between domestic economic policy and foreign economic policy is now almost invisible and getting these policies right matters for more than just U S living standards The United States ability to influence world events rests on a robust competitive economy But without further investment in education infrastructure and innovation Alden and Strauss show the United States runs the risk of endangering its greatest competitive advantage Through insightful analysis and engaging graphics How America Stacks Up outlines the challenges faced by the United States and prescribes solutions that will ensure a healthy competitive U S economy for years to come Ready to Learn Tara Beteille, Namrata Tognatta, Michelle Riboud, Shinsaku Nomura, Yashodhan Ghorpade, 2020-03-06 Countries that have sustained rapid growth over decades have typically had a strong public commitment to expanding education as well as to improving learning outcomes South Asian countries have made considerable progress in expanding access to primary and secondary schooling with countries having achieved near universal enrollment of the primary school age cohort ages 6 11 except for Afghanistan and Pakistan Secondary enrollment shows an upward trend as well Beyond school many more people have access to skilling opportunities and higher education today Although governments have consistently pursued policies to expand access a prominent feature of the region has been the role played by nonstate actors private nonprofit and forprofit entities in expanding access at every level of education Though learning levels remain low countries in the region have shown a strong commitment to improving learning All countries in South Asia have taken the first step which is to assess learning outcomes regularly Since 2010 there has been a rapid increase in the number of large scale student learning assessments conducted in the region But to use the findings of these assessments to improve schooling countries must build their capacity to design assessments and analyze and use findings to inform policy
