3. He remembers when he was a child and had a power failure. His mother lit a candle and Montag had a moment of both physical and mental illumination. They were enjoying one another's company in the dark—and he didn't want the lights to come back on.
4. He laughed and said, "That's against the law!"
5. they argue about whether houses have ever been fireproof; that firemen used to put out fires

They treat her inhumanly, like a doll or a dead object. They have to perform these "cleansings" quite often, and in fact, have about 10 a night and are on their way to another after Mildred.
15. laughter coming from Clarisse's house; he goes across the lawn to hear more, even tap on the window to listen, but fear gets the best of him
16. Seashell Radios (ear thimbles); she listens constantly to the broadcast of constant talking and sounds and "white" noise; she is an expert at lipreading, now; she may want to drown out other human interaction, she may just be so used to it that she doesn't think of doing anything else; possibly because of the constant hum or because they are so small
17. She has no memory of anything; she denies doing something "like that," asking why she would do such a foolish thing.
