Chapter 14- Aging and Geriatrics

• What is gerontology (text)?

Gerontology is the scientific study of the processes and phenomena of aging and growing old. The definition of being elderly varies.

Module definition: Gerontology is the study of aging, and several theories have been developed to explain the aging process. We will go over some of the main theories of aging.

- For example, the gerontologist typically looks at the life expectancy period. The American Association of Retired Persons finds it to be the average age of retirement, and many elderly define their life as 60's as the time they begin to feel elderly.
- Gerontology is multi-disciplinary with related and biological scientists, social scientists, and even traditional modern scientists all studying the processes of aging from their disciplines point of view.
- Social Gerontology is the sociological study field of gerontology which focuses on the sociological and social aspects of aging. Sociology focuses on the social understanding of
