Nur, Kocabay-Sener, Nihal, Demir, Tuğba, 2020-10-02 Individuals seek ways to repress the sense of violence within themselves and often resort to medial channels The hunger of the individual for violence is a trigger for the generation of violent content by media owners of political power owners of religious power etc However this content is produced considering the individual s sensitivities Thus violence is aestheticized Aesthetics of violence appear in different fields and in different forms In order to analyze it an interdisciplinary perspective is required The Handbook of Research on Aestheticization of Violence Horror and Power brings together two different concepts that seem incompatible aesthetics and violence and focuses on the basic motives of aestheticizing and presenting violence in different fields and genres as well as the role of audience reception Seeking to reveal this togetherness with different methods research analyses and findings in different fields that include media urban design art and mythology the book covers the aestheticization of fear power and violence in such mediums as public relations digital games and performance art This comprehensive reference is an ideal source for researchers academicians and students working in the fields of media culture art politics architecture aesthetics history cultural anthropology and more

Idology in Transcultural Perspective Aoyagi Hiroshi, Patrick W. Galbraith, Mateja Kovacic, 2021-12-10 This edited volume expands on what Aoyagi Hiroshi intended in the first decade of the new millennium to establish as a subfield of symbolic anthropology called ideology It brings together case studies of popular idolatry in Japan but goes further to provide a transcultural perspective to guide anthropological investigations in different places and times In proposing an integrated paradigm for the growing body of literature on idols the volume redirects recurrent questions to more fundamental points of sociocultural inquiry Contributions from scholars conducting ethnographic fieldwork as well as those engaged in theoretical and historical analyses facilitate comparative reading and critical thought Exceeding a narrow focus on human idols the chapters shed new light on virtual idols and YouTubers cartoon characters and voices robot idols and cybernetic systems Science and technology studies thus comes together with theories of animation and anthropological work on life in more than human worlds

A Brief History of Comic Book Movies Wheeler Winston Dixon, Richard Graham, 2017-01-05 A Brief History of Comic Book Movies traces the meteoric rise of the hybrid art form of the comic book film These films trace their origins back to the early 1940s when the first Batman and Superman serials were made The serials and later television shows in the 1950s and 60s were for the most part designed for children But today with the continuing rise of Comic Con they seem to be more a part of the mainstream than ever appealing to adults as well as younger fans This book examines comic book movies from the past and present exploring how these films shaped American culture from the post World War II era to the present day and how they adapted to the changing tastes and mores of succeeding generations

Animated Film in Japan Until 1919 Frederick S. Litten, 2017 In 2017 Japan celebrates 100 years of anime 1917 indeed saw the first Japanese animated movies being released in Tokyo cinemas reflecting years of imports of Western animated movies and knowledge Yet even earlier local printed animation inspired by German models had already been available in Japan for home projectors This study presents for the first time in English a detailed and up to date account of foreign and local animation in Japan in the first two decades of the 20th century also including biographical information on the three Japanese anime pioneers of 1917 Jonathan Clements author of Anime A History calls this book a landmark in the international study of early animation

Perfect Blue. (Pafekuto Buru). Satoshi Kon (1997) Antonio Loriguillo-López, 2020-02-27 Considerada como una de las obras maestras del malogrado director Satoshi Kon Perfect Blue es uno de los filmes sobre los que la animación comercial japonesa contemporánea ha construido su identidad como producto cultural atravesado por un lado por elementos propios de la ficción de explotación y por otro por rasgos pertenecientes a la complejidad narrativa de la narración postclásica La obra prima de Kon va más allá de las superficiales representaciones del mundo de las idols japonesas y explora los elementos más sombríos del entramado del entretenimiento mediático que las sustenta la inmoralidad de sus agencias de representación lo deshonesto de los productores televisivos el potencial obsesivo de los otaku y sobre todo de las secuelas psicológicas a las que están sometidas las idols
