on the pulse and tell the story of China's growing influence. They interview Chinese traders in latter day Silk Road bazaars, climb remote mountain passes threatened by construction, commiserate with Afghan archaeologists charged with saving centuries old Buddhist ruins before they are swept away by mining projects, meet with eager young Central Asians learning Mandarin and sit with officials in all five Central Asian capitals bearing witness to a region increasingly transformed by Beijing's presence. Their stories and experiences illustrate how China's foreign policy initiative has expressed itself on the ground and what it means for those living both within and beyond the boundaries of its inadvertent empire.
