

The learner will be expected to compile a portfolio of evidence based on the research/investigation on a specific topic to depict, sell, demonstrate or advertise the topic. This portfolio will contain all the evidence on the topic that the learner could gather. This should include reports, presentations, photographs, pictures, graphs, sketches, diagrams, etc.

An example of a portfolio of evidence: Evidence of the degradation of the environment.

4.5.2 Project

The project will be a piece of work in which knowledge, skills and values which lead towards competence in the specific or integrated content, are demonstrated. The project requires extended reading and writing on the part of the learner. The project will involve thorough investigation into and sourcing information on a selected topic in the curriculum. This could take the form of an interview, observation and making suggestions to improve upon the topic. The objective for the project should be clear and thorough planning should take place, e.g. preparing the questions for an interview. This is followed by the research, and finally the data/ information has to be collated into evidence. The evidence will be in the form of an essay with sub-headings relating to the criteria of the task.

Although learners will spend time outside of contact time to collect resources and information, the completion of the task has to be facilitated by the teacher in class time. The topic and nature of the project will be determined by the content covered according to the annual teaching plan. Learners should be given a project before the end of the second term, after the content related to the project has been addressed, for submission during the third term. Learners will need adequate guidance at the outset of the project and progress should be monitored throughout. All assessment criteria applicable to the project has to be discussed with the learners prior to the commencement of the project.

Examples of a project:

- Community project to address a social or environmental issue
- Investigation of lifestyle choices and their impact on the overall well-being of the South African youth
- Research and apply decision-making skills to challenging situations set in different contexts: a plan of action or advice for long-term success should be provided.

When preparing a project, consider these minimum requirements:

- A cover page
- A table of contents
- Text divided into paragraphs/sections as indicated in the instructions/criteria for the project
- Pictures, photos, diagrams and graphs may be included
- Include a bibliography
- The project should be bound or stapled.

4.5.3 Examinations

Examinations of at least 90 minutes each will be administered twice a year as part of the internal examination

Busby, Adam J. Howat, Jacob E. Rothschild, Richard M. Shafranek, 2021-09-29 In the United States politics has become tribal and personalized The influence of partisan divisions has extended beyond the political realm into everyday life affecting relationships and workplaces as well as the ballot box To help explain this trend we examine the stereotypes Americans have of ordinary Democrats and Republicans Using data from surveys experiments and Americans own words we explore the content of partisan stereotypes and find that they come in three main flavors parties as their own tribes coalitions of other tribes or vehicles for political issues These different stereotypes influence partisan conflict people who hold trait based stereotypes tend to display the highest levels of polarization while holding issue based stereotypes decreases polarization This finding suggests that reducing partisan conflict does not require downplaying partisan divisions but shifting the focus to political priorities rather than identity a turn to what we call responsible partisanship      Critical Thinking in Moral Development, 2024-12-09 This book is for anyone interested in these topics whether they are veterans or relative newcomers to the field because the editors have assembled a stellar group of seventeen international contributors There are four sections devoted respectively to philosophical perspectives developmental psychology educational practices and assessment Each section consists of three initial chapters followed by a commentary that highlights notable themes and gives guidance for further inquiry Along with the Introduction and Epilogue contributed by the editors Daniel Fasko and Frank Fair the chapters develop themes such as the role of the ideas of Aristotle and Kant in shaping our moral development and educational practices Here readers will encounter informative discussions of among other things The 4Es of Virtuous Purpose The Rational Construction of Morality and Philosophy Goes to High School Readers are also led to consider Measures of Moral Identity The EQUIP Program and Assessing Value Clarity and Moral Blueprints The diversity of expertise and the international vantage points of the contributors make this book an informative overview for the expert and a useful introduction for the beginning student concerning the issues involved Contributors are Jennifer Baker Marvin W Berkowitz M Neil Browne Michael W Creane Juan P Dabdoub Frank Fair Daniel Fasko Jr John C Gibbs David Kaspar J n Knap k Martina Kosturkov Shane McLoughlin Chad Miller Benjamin Mitchell Yellin David Moshman G Felicitas Munzel Renee B Patrick Timothy S Reilly and Di You      The Handbook of Narrative Analysis Anna De Fina, Alexandra Georgakopoulou, 2015-04-08
