Validating

Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations. Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation, this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong. The authors discuss their experience of the validation process, demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders.

Creativity in the English Curriculum Lorna Smith, 2023-04-21 Creativity in the English Curriculum is essential reading for anyone involved or interested in the teaching of English, offering both a detailed history of how creativity has informed the tradition of teaching English and how it should be used to position this teaching in the future. Highlighting the need to promote creativity as a rich intellectual pursuit, Creativity in the English Curriculum celebrates artistry in English past and present and argues for its restoration to the curriculum. It emphasises that creativity is at the core of a humane education, not only through stimulating and enhancing the growth of the individual but also through developing understanding of the importance of community, society and collaboration. Smith presents the historical relationship between curriculum policy and creativity, demonstrating that creativity has and always will be the life blood of teaching and learning. Including dialogues between expert English teaching practitioners and leading professionals concerning the place of creativity in English, Creativity in the English Curriculum includes practical research-informed ideas for effective creative practice for any English classroom. It is a must-read for teachers, educators, parents and guardians to prepare all learners for life in and beyond school.

Education and Extremisms Farid Panjwani,Lynn Revell,Reza Gholami,Mike Diboll,2017-08-09 Education and Extremisms addresses one of the most pressing questions facing societies today how is education to respond to the challenge of extremism It argues that the implementation of new teaching techniques curricular reforms or top down changes to education policy alone cannot solve the problem of extremism in educational establishments across the world Instead the authors of this thought provoking volume argue that there is a need for those concerned with radicalisation to reconsider the relationship between instrumentalist ideologies shaping education and the multiple forms of extremisms that exist Beginning with a detailed discussion of the complicated and contested nature of different forms of extremism including extremism of both a religious and secular nature the authors show that common assumptions in contemporary discourses on education and extremism are problematic Chapters in the book provide a careful selection of pertinent and topical case studies policy analysis and insightful critique of extremist discourses Taken together the chapters in the book make a powerful case for re engaging with liberal education in order to foster values of individual and social enrichment intellectual freedom criticality open mindedness flexibility and reflection as antidotes to extremist ideologies Recognising recent criticisms of liberalism and liberal education the authors argue for a new understanding of liberal education that is suitable for multicultural societies in a rapidly globalising world This book is essential reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students with an interest in religion citizenship education liberalism secularism counter terrorism social policy Muslim education youth studies and extremism It is also relevant to teacher educators teachers and policymakers

English Mechanic and World of Science ,1869 Economic Integration in Africa Richard E. Mshomba,2017-10-12 In this work Richard E Mshomba offers an in depth analysis of economic integration in Africa with a focus on the East African Community EAC arguably the most ambitious of all the regional economic blocs currently in existence in Africa Economic Integration in Africa provides more than just an overview of regional economic blocs in Africa it also offers a rich historical discussion on the birth and death of the first EAC starting with the onset of colonialism in the 1890s and a systematic analysis of the birth growth and aspirations of the current EAC Those objectives include forming a monetary union and eventually an East African political federation This book also examines the African Union s aspirations for continent wide integration as envisioned by the Abuja Treaty Mshomba carefully argues that maturity of democracy and good governance in each country are prerequisites for the formation of a viable and sustainable East African federation and genuine continent wide integration
