Africa and the World Dawn Nagar, Charles Mutasa, 2017-10-25 This book probes key issues pertaining to Africa s relations with global actors It provides a comprehensive trajectory of Africa s relations with key bilateral and major multilateral actors assessing how the Cold War affected the African state systems political policies its

economies and its security Taken together the essays in this volume provide a collective understanding of Africa s drive to improve the capacity of its state of global affairs and assess whether it is in fact able to do so Will Africa Feed China? Deborah Brautigam,2015-10-07 Is China building a new empire in rural Africa Over the past decade China s meteoric rise on the continent has raised a drumbeat of alarm China has 9 percent of the world s arable land 6 percent of its water and over 20 percent of its people Africa s savannahs and river basins host the planet s largest expanses of underutilized land and water Few topics are as controversial and emotionally charged as the belief that the Chinese government is aggressively buying up huge tracts of prime African land to grow food to ship back to China In Will Africa Feed China Deborah Brautigam one of the world s leading experts on China and Africa probes the myths and realities behind the media headlines Her careful research challenges the conventional wisdom as she shows Chinese farming investments are in fact surprisingly limited and land acquisitions modest Defying expectations China actually exports more food to Africa than it imports Is this picture likely to change African governments are pushing hard for foreign capital and China is building a portfolio of tools to allow its agribusiness firms to go global International concerns about land grabbing are well justified Yet to feed its own growing population rural Africa must move from subsistence to commercial agriculture What role will China play Moving from the halls of power in Beijing to remote irrigated rice paddies of Africa Will Africa Feed China introduces the people and the politics that will shape the future of this engagement the state owned Chinese agribusiness firms that pioneered African farming in the 1960s and the entrepreneurial private investors who followed them Their fascinating stories and those of the African farmers and officials who are their counterparts ground Brautigam s deeply informative deftly balanced reporting Forcefully argued and empirically rich Will Africa Feed China will be a landmark work shedding new light on China s evolving global quest for food security and Africa s possibilities for structural transformation From Antagonism to Re-engagement Richard Kamidza,2017-07-19 The book interrogates the European Union EU Zimbabwe Economic Partnership Agreement EPA negotiations covering trade in goods trade related rules and development cooperation The negotiations coincided with EUs motives as the dominant development partner and Zimbabwes state stakeholder fault lines creating dilemmas in the pursuit of a fair EPA outcome As a result the economically weak Zimbabwe signed and ratified an asymmetrical interim EPA iEPA with an economically powerful EU in 2009 and 2012 respectively Meanwhile direct bilateral re engagement which eluded the Government of National Unity GNU became real following ZANU PF landslide victory on 31 July 2013 that sufficiently altered the power balance to trigger the process between the former nemesis in support of iEPA domestication and social and economic development ZANU PF government stopped blaming the EU and other western nations for the countrys continued economic underperformance signaling a softening approach on its part Similarly the EU and its member states softened its perception on ZANU PF leadership leading to resumption and intensification of re engagement despite failure to implement the Global Political Agreement related constitutional and democratic reforms agreed by GNU This re engagement was firmly endorsed when the EU and Zimbabwe signed an agreement in July 2015 to normalise bilateral relations and start cooperation Higher Education, Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. G. Govender, 2021-02-24 This volume explores the pressing issues of entrepreneurship education and development in Southern Africa It discusses the various roles of higher education institutions in enhancing entrepreneurship in localised communities and provides a systematic solution for improving the Southern African economy by realising the importance of empowering the youth with entrepreneurial skills In addition successful development requires effective policies and contemporary approaches to both community engagement and entrepreneurship management The book uses different Southern African case studies to discuss the various issues and innovations in entrepreneurship in the country

The End of China's Non-Intervention Policy in Africa Obert Hodzi, 2018-10-22 This book gives a compelling analysis and explanation of shifts in China's non intervention policy in Africa Systematically connecting the neoclassical realist theoretical logic with an empirical analysis of China's intervention in African civil wars the volume highlights a methodical interlink between theoretical and empirical analysis that takes into consideration the changing status of rising powers in the global system and its effect on their intervention behaviour Based on field research and expert interviews it provides a rigorous analysis of China's emergent intervention behaviour in some key African conflicts in Libya South Sudan and Mali and broadens the study of external interventions in civil wars to include the intervention behaviour of non Western rising powers Obert Hodzi is Visiting Researcher at the African Studies Center Boston University USA and Postdoctoral Researcher at the University of Helsinki Finland Intellectual Property Law in Africa Caroline B. Ncube, 2023-06-29

Examining the harmonisation of Intellectual Property policy law and administration in Africa this book evaluates the effectiveness of efforts to establish continental Intellectual Property institutions and frameworks It also considers sub regional initiatives led by the regional economic communities and the regional Intellectual Property organisations focusing on relevant protocols and agreements that address Intellectual Property as well as the implementing institutions The book assesses the progress of such initiatives with particular reference to the current socio economic status of African states It argues that that harmonisation initiatives need to be crafted in a way that is supportive of the developmental goals of African states and advocates for due consideration of individual states unique conditions and aspirations This book will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in Intellectual Property law and its harmonisation in Africa

The Struggle of Democratisation against Authoritarianism in Contemporary Africa Kenneth Good, 2020-05-07 This book discusses how the historical dimensions in Kenya Zimbabwe and South Africa are similar dominated by oppressive settler colonialism and authoritarian independent governments their ruling elites characterised by greed and corruption Zimbabwe is outstandingly oppressive plagued from the start by planned regularised ferocious and unparalleled violence as described in one chapter Perpetrated by ZANU PF and President Robert Mugabe it targeted the organised urban poor Hope arose when the trade unions created the MDC in Harare in 1999 A chapter on South Africa is also included and outlines how a small ANC elite chose external armed struggle around 1960 Their campaign marooned thousands of young people in Angolan camps for no military gains and the neglect of domestic political development A new and independent formation the United Democratic Front from 1983 tried to build a popular non racial participatory democracy However an intolerant ANC was determined on its supremacy and Nelson Mandela suppressed the Front in 1991 No similar democratic aspiration has subsequently appeared Another country examined in this text is Tunisia which since 2010 has been totally different utilising an organised civil society a democratic Islamist party and wide readiness to compromise an open politics is being created against big odds

Food Security and Political Stability in Tajikistan Raj Kumar Sharma,2018-10-01 There are links between food security and political stability as was evident during the world food crisis of 2007 08 Food riots were witnessed in a number of countries contributing to political instability There are a number of dimensions to the problem of food insecurity in Tajikistan This book is an attempt to fill the academic void on Tajikistan especially pertaining to its food security This work traces the history of agriculture and food production in Tajikistan from mid 19th century when it came under Russian rule From its inception Tajikistan has been facing the geographic handicap as it is a mountainous country and only 7 percent of the total land is arable which limits its food production This book is a detailed study of how Soviet economic geography introduced intensive cotton cultivation in Tajikistan at the expense of food crops Soviet economic planners felt that a region with hot climate and large water resources should not attempt to grow grains but cotton In the contemporary context this book focuses on how the state and international actors have responded to the food insecurity in Tajikistan Most importantly the book also analyses the relationship between food security and political stability in Tajikistan

Extractive Industry Indigenisation in Zimbabwe

Kennedy Manduna, 2025-09-25 This book explains how and why Zimbabwe s extractive industry Indigenisation over promised its benefits yet under delivered upon implementation This book traces the history of uneven development in Zimbabwe from the initial days of colonialism to the present using the extractive industry as the unit of analysis to carve out a granular and empirical analysis of the preponderance of transnational corporate control and ownership in the country Indigenisation of Zimbabwe s extractive industries was intended to address mining inequalities by transferring wealth from rich non Indigenous mining capital to disadvantaged Indigenous citizens and communities This policy however was a response to political economic and social crises posed by the international isolation of Zimbabwe s government following the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme in 2000 2003 An intervention therefore which promised to address inequalities has thus been hampered by corruption co optation and collusion which has led to it not only failing to address uneven development but in actual fact worsening the situation By examining the hidden structures and infrastructures of power capital and minerals and placing extractive industry Indigenisation in capitalism this book makes a crucial scholarly contribution to the renewed and burgeoning debates around the resurgence of resource nationalism in general and the struggle for economic sovereignty in particular This book steers readers more broadly to look for new and diversified ways of empowering Indigenous populations and their communities through mining Indigenisation in ways that do not threaten economic and political stability This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of the extractive industries natural resource management African politics and African development

Africa's Shadow Rise Doctor Padraig Carmody, Peter

Kragelund, Ricardo Reboredo, 2020-09-17 For years economists have spoken of Africa rising and despite the global financial crisis Africa continues to host some of the fastest growing economies in the world Africa s Shadow Rise however argues that the continent s apparent economic rise is essentially a mirage driven by developments elsewhere most particularly the expansion in China s economy While many African countries have experienced high rates of growth much of this growth may prove to be unsustainable and has contributed to environmental destruction and worsening inequality across the continent

Similarly new economic relationships have produced new forms of dependency as African nations increasingly find themselves tied to the fortunes of China and other emerging powers Drawing on in depth fieldwork in southern Africa Africa s Shadow Rise reveals how the shifting balance of global power is transforming Africa s economy and politics and what this means for the future of development efforts in the region

Development Naivety and Emergent Insecurities in a Monopolised World

Munyaradzi Mawere, 2018-09-17 It is common knowledge that development without security is like a runaway horse Yet development in Africa has been plagued by insecurities since the extractive periods of slave trade and colonialism In spite of political independence and the euphoria of sovereignty as states Africa has failed to address insecurity which continues to loom large and to threaten aspirations towards truly inclusive and sustainable development A consequence has been Africa's development naivety vis vis the monopolisation of development by the predatory elite actors of the global North and their local facilitators To salvage the continent from such predation and the insecurities engendered requires novel and innovative imagination and praxis This book draws from both the haunted landscapes and bitter memories of past exploitations and from the feeding of the insatiable North with African resources and humanity It brings together essays by a concerned generation of scholars driven by the urgent need for radical decolonisation of African development and its legacies of insecurities It is handy to students and practitioners in economics policy studies political science development studies global and African studies
