

Exercise 6

- 15 A new sports centre has recently opened in your town. Last week, you went there with a group of your friends. You have decided to write a review of the sports centre for your school magazine.

Here are some comments from your friends:

I wasn't impressed by the food in the café.

The staff gave us a really good tour of the sports centre.

There were some problems
with the changing rooms.

I liked the choice of activities and classes.

Write a review for your school magazine, giving your opinion.

The comments above may give you some ideas, and you can also use some ideas of your own.

Your review should be between 100 and 150 words long.

You will receive up to 6 marks for the content of your review, and up to 6 marks for the language used.

Language Across the Curriculum

& CLIL in English as an Additional Language (EAL) Contexts Angel M.Y. Lin, 2016-09-15 This book will be of interest to a broad readership regardless of whether they have a background in sociolinguistics functional linguistics or genre theories. It presents an accessible meta language i.e. a language for talking about language that is workable and usable for teachers and researchers from both language and content backgrounds thus facilitating collaboration across content and language subject panels. Chapters 1 to 3 lay the theoretical foundation of this common meta language by critically reviewing systematically presenting and integrating key theoretical resources for teachers and researchers in this field. In turn, Chapters 4 to 7 focus on issues in pedagogy and assessment and on school based approaches to LAC and CLIL drawing on both research studies and the experiences of front line teachers and school administrators. Chapter 8 provides a critical and reflexive angle on the field by asking difficult questions regarding how LAC and CLIL are often situated in contexts characterized by inequality of access to the linguistic and cultural capitals where the local languages of the students are usually neglected or viewed unfavourably in relation to the L2 in mainstream society and where teachers are usually positioned as recipients of knowledge rather than makers of knowledge. In closing, Chapter 9 reviews the state of the art in the field and proposes directions for future inquiry.

Multilinguals' Verbalisation and Perception of Emotions Pia Resnik, 2018-06-18 This book investigates the interplay of language emotion and gender in a multilingual context and provides rich insights into the complexities of bilingualism and the field of emotion research as well as the intersection of both. Combining quantitative and qualitative analyses of data, the book examines multilinguals' verbalisation and perception of emotions in their first language and English, their second language L2. The research looks at crosslinguistic intercultural and gender based differences, thereby highlighting the challenges faced by multilinguals in this context and the potential risks of miscommunication and misinterpretation. Results support the call for a change of paradigm towards a holistic approach to multilingualism and emotion research and highlight the similarities and differences in L2 users of English when expressing their emotions in the different languages. The book will appeal to anyone interested in research on emotions in the context of bi-multilingualism or second language acquisition as well as those teaching or learning multiple languages.

Demotivation in Second Language Acquisition Keita Kikuchi, 2015-08-05 SLA literature tends to focus predominantly on what motivates language learners but what demotivates them has not been widely discussed. This book focusing exclusively on demotivation will help readers to understand motivational issues from a different perspective. The aims of the work are threefold: to present the current developments of demotivation research in the field of SLA and bridge motivational theory research and demotivation research to promote the understanding of possible causes of demotivation and to expand the focus of demotivation research through a reflection on current motivation theory research and a discussion of methodological issues. The research presented in this book is situated in Japanese English teaching contexts and will serve as a foundation for anyone wishing to better understand the causes of demotivation in SLA and to explore the topic in their own contexts Teaching EAL Robert Sharples, 2021-09-03 This book offers an evidence based guide to EAL for everyone who works with multilingual learners It provides a concise helpful introduction to the latest research underpinning three key areas of EAL practice How children acquire additional languages How language works across the curriculum How you can establish outstanding EAL practice in your school Other key features include case studies from experienced EAL specialists extensive reading recommendations for teachers who want to build on their knowledge and a detailed chapter on Ofsted based on interviews with senior inspectors This book will prove an invaluable guide and support for everyone working with bilingual learners In clear short chapters it gives a thorough grounding in the evidence and principles needed to create outstanding EAL provision Second Language Educational Experiences for Adult Learners John M. Norris, John McE.
