Ethiopian Broadcasting Service Tv:

Cine-Ethiopia Michael W. Thomas, Alessandro Jedlowski, Aboneh Ashagrie, 2018-08-01 Over the past decade Ethiopian films have come to dominate the screening schedules of the many cinemas in Ethiopia's capital city of Addis Ababa as well as other urban centers. Despite undergoing an unprecedented surge in production and popularity in Ethiopia and in the diaspora, this phenomenon has been broadly overlooked by African film and media scholars and Ethiopianists alike. This collection of essays and interviews on cinema in Ethiopia represents the first work of its kind and establishes a broad foundation for furthering research on this topic. Taking an interdisciplinary approach to the topic and bringing together contributions from both Ethiopian and international scholars, the collection offers new and alternative narratives for the development of screen media in Africa. The book's relevance reaches far beyond its specific locale of Ethiopia as contributions focus on a broad range of topics such as commercial and genre films, diaspora filmmaking, and the role of women in the film industry while simultaneously discussing multiple forms of screen media from satellite TV to video films. Bringing both historical and contemporary moments of cinema in Ethiopia into the critical frame offers alternative considerations for the already radically changing critical paradigm surrounding the understandings of African cinema. Global Broadcasting Systems Robert L. Hilliard, Michael C. Keith, 2023-12-22 Global Broadcasting Systems 1996 provides a comprehensive look at broadcasting throughout the world. It covers every continent, region, and almost every country in North and South America, Europe, Africa, Asia, and Oceania. Within each geographical area, it presents the history, key issues, trends, and status of broadcasting facilities and penetration, the control, regulation, and management of networks and stations by government, domestic and foreign industry, and the public; the financing of broadcasting systems; programming types and trends, including foreign imports, media freedom, and censorship; and external radio and television services from other countries. The book discusses how new technology and political, social, and economic factors influence the global media and shows how increasing privatization has changed patterns of control and access. Media Compass Aljoshia Karim Schapals, Christian Pentzold, 2024-09-04 An extensive and inclusive account of the media environments of 45 countries worldwide. Enabling the mapping of media landscapes internationally, Media Compass contains up-to-date empirical surveys of individual countries and regions as well as cross-country comparisons of particular areas of public communication. 45 entries each guiding readers from a general summary to a more in-depth discussion of a country's specific media landscape, address formative conditions and circumstances, historical background and development, current issues and challenges, and more.
