Legal Priorities in Air Transport Ruwantissa Abeyratne, 2019-05-27

Against the backdrop of enormous technological strides, this book argues that the air transport industry must be constantly vigilant in its efforts to employ a legal regime that is applicable to the aeronautical and human aspects of the carriage by air of persons and goods. In this regard, safety and security are of the utmost importance, both in terms of safe air navigation and the preservation of human life. Although the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) addresses legal issues through its Legal Committee, many emerging issues that urgently require attention lie outside the Committee's purview. This book analyzes in detail the items being considered by ICAO's Legal Committee, considers the legal nature of ICAO, and discusses whether or not ICAO's scope should be extended. Since the limited issues currently addressed by ICAO do not reflect the rapidly changing realities of air transport, the book also covers a broad range of key issues outside the parameters set by ICAO, such as the need to teach air law to a new generation of aviation professionals, combating cyber crime and cyber terrorism, the regulation of artificial intelligence, traveller identification, interference with air navigation, human trafficking, unruly passengers climate change air carrier liability for passenger death or injury Remotely Piloted Aircraft Systems drones and the cabin crew and their legal implications Doing Business in the Middle East Donna Marsh,2015-05-11 This new and updated book is necessary reading for all professionals working in the Middle East and North Africa it includes The practical impact of Islam on business Safety and security in the region Business etiquette Political and social do s and don ts The practicalities of doing business in the MEA region are covered in detail from the initial visit to establishing productive working relationships including opening an office in the region It also focuses on issues of particular importance to all businesswomen and for men who might be working with Arab and Muslim women The Middle East Unveiled Donna Marsh,2011-06-01 Why did Mr Abdul Rahman Hassan seem uncomfortable when I asked him if his Christian name was Abdul A Many organisations new to the Middle East become very successful many more struggle and some will fail altogether Often the difference between a successful organisation and one that fails is that organisation s level of cultural intelligence Cultural intelligence has never been more important as businesses globalise especially in parts of the world that are very different to markets in the West Cultural and social mistakes can cost businesses dearly Learning how to do business in the Middle East without causing offence is crucial This book provides cultural and practical business intelligence for all Western business people working throughout the Middle East It also focuses on issues specifically important to Western businesswomen as well as for men who might be working with Arab and Muslim women It can make the difference between success and failure for the reader and his or her organisation The Old Bold Pilot Capt.
