United States of America Congressional Record, Proceedings and Debates of the 113th Congress Second Session Volume 160 - Part 3 , Ray Bradbury David Seed,2015-02-28 As much as any individual Ray Bradbury brought science fiction's ideas into the mainstream Yet he transcended the genre in both form and popularity using its trappings to explore timely social concerns and the kaleidoscope of human experience while in the process becoming one of America's most beloved authors David Seed follows Bradbury's long career from the early short story masterpieces through his work in a wide variety of broadcast and film genres to the influential cultural commentary he spread via essays speeches and interviews Mining Bradbury's classics and hard to find archival literary and cultural materials Seed analyzes how the author's views on technology authoritarianism and censorship affected his art how his Midwest of dream and dread brought his work to life and the ways film and television influenced his creative process and visually oriented prose style The result is a passionate statement on Bradbury's status as an essential literary writer deserving of a place in the cultural history of his time Congressional Record United States. Congress,2013 Federal Register ,2014 Design and Agency John Potvin,Marie-Eve Marchand,2020-05-14 Design and Agency brings together leading international design scholars and practitioners to address the concept of agency in relation to objects organisations and people The authors set out to expand the scope of design history and practice avoiding the heroic narratives of a typical modernist approach They consider both how the agents of design construct and express their identities and subjectivities through practice while also investigating the distinctive contribution of design in the construction of individual identity and subjectivity Individual chapters explore notions of agency in a range of design disciplines and historical periods including the agency of women in effecting changes to the design of offices and working practices the role of Jeffrey Lindsay and Buckminster Fuller in developing the design of a geodesic dome Le Corbusier's Casa Curutchet a re consideration of the gendered historiography of the Jugendstil movement and Bruce Mau's design exhibitions Taken together the essays in Design and Agency provide a much needed response to the traditional texts which dominate design history With a broad chronological span from 1900 to the present and an equally broad understanding of the term design it expands how we view the discipline and shows how design itself can be an agent for social cultural and economic change
