

EDUCATIONAL IMPACT STATEMENTS

What is an educational impact statement?	The educational impact statement is an essential part of an EAS application. It provides independent evidence that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– an applicant has or hasn't been educationally disadvantaged;</li> <li>– the extent of the educational impact of any disadvantage experienced.</li> </ul> The educational impact statement needs to confirm or qualify the information in the applicant statement.
What disadvantages require an educational impact statement?	An individual educational impact statement must be provided for each of the following disadvantages: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– FIRC (financial hardship)</li> <li>– HOLA, HOLB, HONC, HORD (severe family disruption)</li> <li>– HOLA, HOSB, HONC, HSAK (excessive family responsibilities)</li> <li>– LOLA, LOSB (English language difficulty)</li> <li>– NOD (natural disaster)</li> <li>– PDA (personal illness/disability)</li> <li>– SOD (disrupted schooling)</li> </ul> If we require an applicant to provide an educational impact statement, a form will be included in the confirmation package generated when they complete their EAS application. They then need to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– ask the school to complete the form</li> <li>– upload the completed form to their application.</li> </ul> If we don't require an educational impact statement, we'll need some other form of supporting documentation. Check the categories of disadvantage and required documents at sec.education.wa.gov.au.
Required information	What you write in the educational impact statement must be specific to the applicant: vague and generic statements are not helpful in the assessment process. Write a personalised statement for each student and each disadvantage. The statement must indicate if the circumstances described in the applicant statement are accurate. Ensure that you: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>– indicate whether or not the disadvantage claimed has affected the applicant's educational performance;</li> <li>– indicate the level of impact of the educational disadvantage by ticking the relevant impact box;</li> <li>– include the duration of disadvantage (years/months);</li> <li>– include any other relevant information about the educational impact.</li> </ul>

Brent Edwards Jr.,2023-04-13 Why is it so hard for international development organizations even ones as well resourced and influential as the World Bank to generate and sustain change in the way things are done in those countries where they work Despite what in many cases is decades of investment and effort why do partner governments continue to engage in those traditional patterns and styles of public service management that international development organizations have sought to supplant with methods that are supposedly more accountable efficient and effective This book provides an answer to these questions However rather than pathologizing partner governments as the source of the problem that is rather than maintaining the distinction between doctor international development organizations and patient partner governments wherein the patient is seen as unwilling to take their medicine enacting good governance practices this book instead reframes the relationship The central argument is first that the programs and projects of international organizations are introduced into and are constrained by multiple layers of ritual governance that is performative acts and cultural logics that intersect with and reinforce the political economic and social structures in and through which they operate As is shown the contextual factors that guide governance practices are largely beyond the reach of the international development organizations the relevant logics have their roots in state ideology but also extend back to the colonial logics that continue to operate at the heart of the state apparatus The second the central argument is that international aid organizations and the governments with which they work are engaged in a ritual aid dance where each actor plays a part but does not and cannot acknowledge the ways that it depends on the other for its own gain This relationship can be considered a dance because each participant responds to and needs the other and because both sides do so in ways that are carefully choreographed with the overall trajectory or contours of the dance being more or less known to the participants These arguments are based on research on the World Bank s efforts over the course of several decades to encourage through its financing projects and technical assistance the implementation of social sector reform in Indonesia related to decentralization community participation and school based management      Oversight Hearings on the Impact of Federal Cutbacks on the School Lunch Program United States.
