

What is Therapy Spanking?

CONSENTING
ADULTS
ONLY

Therapy Spanking is a type of spanking where the goal is emotional release instead of purposes of sexual foreplay or punishment.

Communication is an absolute must for this to truly be effective. There needs to be talking before, during and after the spanking.

What is the Job of the Spanker? You as the Spanker needs to be calm and the spanking needs to be firm and consistent in rhythm, you may need to encourage your spankee to talk, cry out as you spank, letting them know that they are safe and not being judged. You need to pay attention to the body language and cries of the spankee you are charged with their vulnerability and need to be able to notice if its getting too intense for them and help pull them back.

What is the Job of the Spankee? You as the Spankee needs to feel comfortable and feel free to kick, struggle and say what ever it is they feel they need to say. This is your time, a time where you can let go of being in charge and let yourself free to express the emotions you may be too afraid of otherwise. Let yourself have a moment where you are no longer in charge and let your vulnerability show.
