Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumièr screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumièr brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard The Parks, Promenades, & Gardens of Paris William Robinson, 1869 The national French grammar G I. Bertinchamp, 1855 French Socialism and Sexual Difference S. Foley, 1992-02-27 This study explores the meanings ascribed to sexual difference in the theories of Charles Fourier the Saint Simonians and Flora Tristan Their concept of the feminine as a moral force justified a wide range of social roles for women In addition the feminine became a symbol of the harmony and co operation envisaged for the future The study shows that while these socialists challenged contemporary sex role definitions the new distinctions which they created nevertheless circumscribed the possibilities for female liberty French Romantic Travel Writing Christopher W. Volume 1 Anne Ruas, 2011-05-02 This book is comprised of a selection of the best papers presented during the 25th International Cartography Conference which was held in Paris between 3rd and 8th July 2011 The scope of the conference covers all fields of relevant GIS and Mapping research subjects such as geovisualization semiotics SDI standards data quality data integration generalization use and user issues spatio temporal modelling and analysis open source technologies and web services digital representation of historical maps history of GIS and cartography as well as cartography for school children and education Gauguin's Challenge Norma Broude, 2018-03-08 Several decades have now passed since postcolonial and feminist critiques presented the art historical world with a demythologized Paul Gauguin 1848 1903 a much diminished image of the artist hero who had once been universally admired as the father of modernist primitivism In this volume both long established and more recent Gauguin scholars offer a provocative picture of the evolution of Gauguin scholarship in the recent postmodern era as they confront and consider how the dismantling of the longstanding Gauguin myth positions us now in the 21st century to deal with and assess the life work and legacy of this still perennially popular artist To reassess the challenges that Gauguin faced in his own day as well as those that he continues to present to current and future scholarship they explore the multiple contexts that influenced Gauguin's thought and behavior as well as his art and incorporate a variety of interdisciplinary approaches from anthropology philosophy and the history of science to gender studies and the study of Pacific cultural history Dealing with a wide range of Gauguin's production they challenge conventional art historical thinking highlight transnational perspectives and offer clues to the direction of future scholarship as audiences worldwide seek to make multicultural peace with Gauguin and his art Broude has raised the bar of Gauguin scholarship ever higher in this groundbreaking volume which will be necessary reading for students and scholars of art history late 19th century French and Pacific culture gender studies and beyond Roller Coasters Todd H. Throgmorton, Samantha K. Throgmorton, 2016-04-30 In its fourth edition this exhaustive guide to roller coasters in the United States and Canada also provides a history of coaster evolution from the 16th century and a look into the future of coaster technology and design The book lists by state or province more than 700 coasters at more than 160 amusement and theme parks Each entry includes contact information along with summaries of each coaster's origins features and history There are six appendices famous coaster designers the longest wood and steel coasters in North America a coaster census by state or province a chronology of wooden roller coasters still in operation interesting amusement park and coaster facts and a guide to the alpine coasters at winter resorts in the U S and Canada French Art: Classic and Contemporary Painting and Sculpture W. C. Brownell, 2019-12-24 In French Art Classic and Contemporary Painting and Sculpture W C Brownell meticulously navigates the evolution of French artistic expression from its classical roots to contemporary innovations The book offers an intricate analysis interwoven with keen observations on stylistic transitions societal influences and the burgeoning dynamics of artistic movements Brownell's proficient prose not only presents a thorough historical overview but also incorporates critical interpretations making the works of celebrated artists like Delacroix and C zanne accessible and relatable for modern audiences His insightful exploration positions French art within the broader narrative of European cultural history underscoring its pivotal role in shaping artistic norms and practices W C Brownell an esteemed critic and scholar of art draws upon his deep seated passion for aesthetics and history cultivated through his extensive travel and engagement with European art His first hand experiences in galleries and studios coupled with a profound understanding of art criticism offer readers a unique lens through which to view the French art landscape This intellectual backdrop along with Brownell's academic acumen informs the nuanced critiques and analyses presented in this volume French Art Classic and Contemporary Painting and Sculpture is highly recommended for art lovers students and scholars who wish to immerse themselves in the rich tapestry of French artistic heritage With its elegant prose and rich insights the book serves as both a comprehensive introduction and a critical reference inviting readers to explore the timeless allure and innovative spirit of French art     Dividing Paris Esther da Costa Meyer,2022-02-15 Dividing Paris Urban Renewal and Social Inequality 1852 1870 offers a new look at the ambitious urban changes that transformed the city of Paris during the Second Empire when Paris became a template for urban renewal in many large cities in Europe North and South America Esther da Costa Meyer looks at the social and historical context of these urban changes what Napoleon III his prefect Georges Eugene Haussman and their team of engineers planned as well as how the diverse and deeply stratified public responded to them Along with broad streets and boulevards intended to enable crowds and merchandise to circulate and also impede the chances of popular insurgency Haussman's project of urban renewal called for ample water supply sewerage and public parks and gardens These changes radically altered the old tightly knit weave of the medieval city serving the needs of the industrial bourgeoisie while forcing the urban poor to the outskirts Dividing Paris is the first architectural history of the city that takes into account the larger part of the urban territory annexed in 1860 a ring of settlements and villages which became increasingly class specific Instead of relating the story of Haussmanization as a top down administrative effort as Haussman's critics and admirers have both tended to do it draws on primary sources especially newspapers and memoirs to investigate the degree to which Parisians' experiences of modernity were class and gender specific and to ask what strategies working class men and women in particular used to cope with and in some cases resist the changing world around them At the same time da Costa Meyer resists the familiar narrative of Paris as capital of the 19th century that has endured at least since Walter Benjamin's famous essay as euro centric and misleading insofar as it fails to situate Paris's urban developments in a broader global context or to acknowledge the extent to which Haussmanization was itself implicated in the broader imperial project on which France was embarked at the time     French Women Writers Eva Martin Sartori,Dorothy Wynne Zimmerman,1994-01-01 Marie de France Mme De Sevigne and Mme De Lafayette achieved international reputations during periods when women in other European countries were able to write only letters translations religious tracts and miscellaneous fragments There were obstacles but French women writers were more or less sustained and empowered by the French culture Often unconventional in their personal lives and occupied with careers besides writing as educators painters actresses preachers salon hostesses labor organizers these women did not wait for Simone de Beauvoir to tell them to make existential choices and have projects in the world French Women Writers describes the lives and careers of fifty two literary figures from the twelfth century to the late twentieth All the contributors are recognized authorities Some of their subjects like Colette and George Sand are celebrated and others are just now gaining critical notice From Christine de Pizan and Marguerite de Navarre to Rachilde and Helene Cixous from Louise Labé to Marguerite Duras these women speak through the centuries to issues of gender sexuality and language French Women

Writers now becomes widely available in this Bison Book edition      WTF?!: What the French Olivier Magny, 2016-10-04 With Stuff Parisians Like Olivier Magny shared his hilarious insights into the fervently held opinions of his fellow Parisians Now he moves beyond the City of Light to skewer the many idiosyncrasies that make modern France so very unique In France the simple act of eating bread is an exercise in creative problem solving and attempting to spell requires a degree of masochism But that's just how the French like it and in WTF Olivier Magny reveals the France only the French know From the latest trends in baby names to the religiously observed division of church and state prepare yourself for an insider's look at French culture that is surprising insightful and chock full of bons mots INCLUDES PHOTOGRAPHS      Junior Translation from French R. L. Graeme Ritchie, James M. Moore, 2016-07-28 Originally published in 1928 this book provides a guide to the translation of French into English      A Grammar of the French Tongue Louis Chambaud, 1812      Architecture and Urbanism in the French Atlantic Empire Gauvin Alexander Bailey, 2018-06-06 Spanning from the West African coast to the Canadian prairies and south to Louisiana the Caribbean and Guiana France's Atlantic empire was one of the largest political entities in the Western Hemisphere Yet despite France's status as a nation at the forefront of architecture and the structures and designs from this period that still remain its colonial building program has never been considered on a hemispheric scale Drawing from hundreds of plans drawings photographic field surveys and extensive archival sources Architecture and Urbanism in the French Atlantic Empire focuses on the French state's and the Catholic Church's ideals and motivations for their urban and architectural projects in the Americas In vibrant detail Gauvin Alexander Bailey recreates a world that has been largely destroyed by wars natural disasters and fires from Cap François now Cap-Haïtien which once boasted palaces in the styles of Louis XV and formal gardens patterned after Versailles to failed utopian cities like Kourou in Guiana Vividly illustrated with examples of grand buildings churches and gardens as well as simple houses and cottages this volume also brings to life the architects who built these structures not only French military engineers and white civilian builders but also the free people of colour and slaves who contributed so much to the tropical colonies Taking readers on a historical tour through the striking landmarks of the French colonial landscape Architecture and Urbanism in the French Atlantic Empire presents a sweeping panorama of an entire hemisphere of architecture and its legacy      French Political Travel Writing in the Interwar Years Martyn Cornick, Martin Hurcombe, Angela Kershaw, 2017-02-10 This book studies travel writing produced by French authors between the two World Wars following visits to authoritarian regimes in Europe and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics USSR It sheds new light on the phenomenon of French political travel in this period by considering the well documented appeal of Soviet communism for French intellectuals alongside their interest in other radical regimes which have been much less studied fascist Italy the Iberian dictatorships and Nazi Germany Through analyses of the travel writing produced as a result of such visits the book gauges the appeal of these forms of authoritarianism for inter war French intellectuals from a broad political spectrum It examines not only those whose political sympathies with the extreme right or extreme left were already publicly known but also non aligned intellectuals who were interested in political models that offered an apparently radical alternative to the French Third Republic This study shows how travel writing provided a space for reflection on the lessons France might learn from the radical political experiments of the inter war years It argues that such writing can usefully be read as a form of utopian thinking distinguishing this from colloquial understandings of utopia as an ideal location Utopianism is understood neither as a fantasy ungrounded in the real nor as a dangerously totalitarian ideal but in line with Karl Mannheim Paul Ric ur and Ruth Levitas as a form of non congruence with the real that it seeks to transcend The utopianism of French political travel writing is seen to lie not in the attempt to portray the destination visited as utopia but rather in the pursuit of a dialogue with radical political alterity
