What the is DELF A1 Exam?

The DELF A1 Exam is an option for students who want to certify their French language skills. The exam is offered by the British Council and consists of multiple-choice questions and true/false statements. Upon passing the exam, students will receive a certificate that states their language abilities.

How many Kinds of DELF Tests?

The DELF A1 exam is a standardised test used by universities in France to assess the ability of foreign students to use French. The test consists of three sections: listening, reading, and speaking.

There are four types of DELF exams:

- Oral Self-Assessment (ASA): This is the most common format for the DELF A1 exam. Students listen to a recording of a dialogue and then answer questions about what they have heard.
- multiple choice questions: This type of question presents learners with a set of choices and asks them which one is best suited for the context.
- Speaking tasks: These tests present students with real life scenarios and ask them to respond in French.
- Reading tasks: These tests present readers with short stories or poems and ask them to analyse the text, identify themes, and make connections between different elements.
