From He To She Gender Switch Transformation English Edition:

Male-to-Female Crossdressing in Early Modern English Literature Simone Chess, 2016-04-14 This volume examines and theorizes the oft ignored phenomenon of male to female MTF crossdressing in early modern drama prose and poetry inviting MTF crossdressing episodes to take a fuller place alongside instances of female to male crossdressing and boy actors crossdressing which have long held the spotlight in early modern gender studies The author argues that MTF crossdressing episodes are especially rich sources for socially oriented readings of queer gender that crossdressers genders are constructed and represented in relation to romantic partners communities and broader social structures like marriage economy and sexuality Further she argues that these relational representations show that the crossdresser and his her allies often benefit financially socially and erotically from his her queer gender presentation a corrective to the dominant idea that queer gender has always been associated with shame containment and correction By attending to these relational and beneficial representations of MTF crossdressers in early modern literature the volume helps to make a larger space for queer genderqueer male bodied and queer feminine representations in our conversations about early modern gender and sexuality opening up a dialogue on the validity and limitations or use and abuse of theory in Montaigne studies New Mythological Figures in Spanish Cinema Pietsie Feenstra, 2011 In the 1970s especially after Franco's death in 1975 Spanish cinema was bursting at the seams Numerous film directors broke free from the ancient taboos which had reigned under the dictatorship They introduced characters who through their bodies transgress the traditional borders of social cultural and sexual identities Post Franco cinema exhibits women homosexuals transsexuals and delinquents in new and challenging ways Under Franco rule all of these dissident bodies were lost Here they reflect new mythological figures inhabiting an idealised body form a prototypical body The NTL Handbook of Organization Development and Change Brenda B. Jones, Michael Brazzel, 2012-06-25 The NTL Handbook of Organization Development and Change is an essential tool for both practitioners and students who want to know how to effectively bring about meaningful and sustainable change in organizations Featuring contributions from leading practitioners academics and scholars in the field each chapter comprehensively explores a key aspect of organization development including core theories and methods OD in the international and world setting practical applications the future of OD and many others Co published with the NTL Institute a long time leader and champion for the field The NTL Handbook of Organization Development and Change boasts an extensive range of knowledge experience and methods integrated by a philosophical system that underscores the vital mission of OD as well as provides expert guidance in the art and science of making organizational development and change work Nabokov's Theatrical Imagination Siggy Frank, 2012-01-12 Drawing on a wealth of unpublished archival material this study offers a comprehensive assessment of the importance of theatrical performance in Vladimir Nabokov's thinking and writing Siggy Frank provides fresh insights into Nabokov's wider aesthetics and arrives at new readings of his narrative fiction As well as emphasising the importance of theatrical performance to our understanding of Nabokov's texts she demonstrates that the theme of theatricality runs through the central concerns of Nabokov's art and life the nature of fiction the relationship between the author and his fictional world textual origin and derivation authorial control and textual property literary appropriations and adaptations and finally the transformation of the writer himself from the Russian migr writer Sirin to the American novelist Nabokov

Self and Self-transformation in the History of Religions David Dean Shulman, Guy G. Stroumsa, 2002 This book brings together scholars of a variety of the world's major civilizations to focus on the universal theme of inner transformation The idea of the self is a cultural formation like any other and models and conceptions of the inner world of the person vary widely from one civilization to another Nonetheless all the world's great religions insist on the need to transform this inner world Such transformations often ritually enacted reveal the primary intuitions drives and conflicts active within the culture The individual essays study dramatic examples of these processes in a wide range of cultures including China India Tibet Greece and Rome Late Antiquity Islam Judaism and medieval and early modern Christian Europe Albania Andreas Hemming, Gentiana Kera, Enriketa Pandelejmoni, 2012 This collection of papers on contemporary issues in Albanian history and anthropology covers a broad range of approaches and forms of analysis The book includes research on parts of the country that have rarely made an appearance in international scholarship including recent research on various aspects of urban life in Albania with several chapters being set in Shkodra Tirana Elbasan and Gjirokastra Issues of local self organization or identity processes are presented as well A third core aspect that is addressed is the continued analysis of new and revealing demographic sources that shed light on the structure and history of the Albanian family Series Studies on South East Europe Vol 9 Engendering Wealth And Well-being Cathy Rakowski,2018-02-19 The new international division of labor and the imposition of structural adjustment on Third World countries has necessitated a reexamination of development policies and a reevaluation of the role of gender in their success or failure Although women often bear the heaviest burden under structural adjustment there is also considerable evidence of women being empowered through their responses to the challenges of economic restructuring Based on case study material from Eastern Europe the Islamic nations Africa China and Latin America this volume explores the significant contributions women make to the wealth and well being of their families and nations The contributors argue persuasively that women may hold the key to sustainable development an increasingly critical issue at a time when policymakers are reconsidering the full costs and benefits of a growth fixated development model One of the first to embody the new gender and development paradigm this book reports on research at the frontiers of knowledge and theory about the gendered outcomes of economic transformation restructuring and social change By incorporating voices from the South it makes a provocative addition to our understanding of the political economy of development and of the relationship between world ecology and the world economy Sibling Relations and the Transformations of European Kinship, 1300-1900 Christopher H. Johnson,David Warren Sabean,2011-03-01 Recently considerable interest has developed about the degree to which anthropological approaches to kinship can be used for the study of the long term development of European history From the late middle ages to the dawn of the twentieth century kinship rather than declining as is often assumed was twice reconfigured in dramatic ways and became increasingly significant as a force in historical change with remarkable similarities across European society Applying interdisciplinary approaches from social and cultural history and literature and focusing on sibling relationships this volume takes up the challenge of examining the systemic and structural development of kinship over the long term by looking at the close inner familial dynamics of ruling families the Hohenzollerns cultural leaders the Mendelssohns business and professional classes and political figures the Gladstones in France Italy Germany and England It offers insight into the current issues in kinship studies and draws from a wide range of personal documents letters autobiographies testaments memoirs as well as genealogies and works of art Africa-Europe Cooperation and Digital Transformation Chux Daniels,Benedikt Erforth,Chloe Teevan,2022-11-22 Africa Europe Cooperation and Digital Transformation explores the opportunities and challenges for cooperation between Africa and Europe in the digital sphere Digitalisation and digital technologies are not only essential for building competitive and dynamic economies they transform societies pose immense challenges for policymakers and increasingly play a pivotal role in global power relations Digital transformations have had catalytic effects on African and European governance economies and societies and will continue to do so The COVID 19 pandemic has already accelerated the penetration of digital tools all over the globe and is likely to be perceived as a critical juncture in how and to what purpose the world accepts and uses new and emerging technologies This book offers a holistic analysis of how Africa and Europe can manage and harness digital transformation as partners in a globalised world The authors shed light on issues ranging from economic growth youth employment and gender to regulatory frameworks business environments entrepreneurship and interest driven power politics They add much needed perspectives to the debates that shape the two continents digital transformation and innovation environments This book will interest practitioners working in the areas of innovation digital technologies and digital entrepreneurship as well as students and scholars of international relations It will also be relevant for policymakers regulators decision makers and leaders in Africa and Europe The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Against and Beyond Magdalena Cieslak, Agnieszka Rasmus, 2012-03-15 Against and Beyond Subversion and Transgression in Mass Media Popular Culture and Performance is a collection of fourteen essays by scholars representing a number of disciplines discussing transgression and subversion in film television music theatre and digital media Moving across major political and cultural movements of the 20th century the book addresses a global need for transgression and subversion in our times Applying theories of Freud Lacan Kristeva Foucault Adorno and Horkheimer Deleuze and Guattari and Butler the volume is an important contribution to understanding the mechanisms and functions of subversion and transgression in contemporary media and popular culture and provides essential reading for all those seeking to go against and beyond

Performing La Mestiza Ellen M. Gil-Gomez, 2017-10-06 This book first published in 2000 explores the intersections of race gender and gay identities in writings by contemporary American lesbians of colour in order to show how this subject is sometimes ignored sometimes brutalised and is very rarely able to survive on her own terms by constructing her own identity acts of cultural revision The author places the lesbian of colour in the context of current identity theories showing the ever present blind spots within current theoretical paradigms she then reads a variety of writings by lesbians of colour describing the possibilities that exist for these subjects in textual and social realities The author shows the varied communities that threaten the existence of this subject as well as the limits that dictate the subject's ability to create her self By bridging Judith Butler's Gender Trouble and Gloria Anzaldúa's New Mestiza she describes how lesbians of colour can survive numerous sites of hostility by constructing a positive identity within her home community through revising cultural traditions and history After considering the power of these acts of revision the author calls for the empowered performance of the mestiza state the state of contradiction wherein the lesbian of colour finds herself This book is the first to analyse creative and theoretical works by African American Asian American Latina and Native American communities and writers through the lens of lesbian studies Authors include recognised figures such as Audre Lorde Ana Castillo and Paula Gunn Allen as well as lesser known authors like Best Brant Natasha Lopez and Willyce Kim It provides a corrective to Butler's empowering but essentially white vision of performing identity so that lesbians of colour can claim their identities and remain tied to their own cultural traditions Ultimately the author asks for a reconsideration of the value of identity studies that articulate monolithic identities and whose analyses perpetuate what they seek to disrupt Routledge Library Editions: Literature and Sexuality Various Authors, 2021-02-25 This set brings together a collection of classic out of print works that offer some surprising new takes on the theme of sexuality in literature Whether examining new spaces by unrepresented women writers of colour or looking afresh at gay writings of the early twentieth century this set presents a thought provoking take on the subject and as such is an essential reference source Unsettling Queer Anthropology Margot Weiss, 2024-04-12 This field defining volume of queer anthropology foregrounds both the brilliance of anthropological approaches to queer and trans life and the ways queer critique can reorient and transform anthropology Self and Self-Transformation in the History of Religions David Shulman Director of the Institute for Advanced Studies, Guy S. Stroumsa Martin Buber Professor of Comparative Religion both at Hebrew University of Jerusalem, 2002-03-18 This book brings together scholars of a variety of the world's major civilizations to focus on the universal theme of inner transformation The idea of the self is a cultural formation like any other and models and conceptions of the inner world of the person vary widely from one civilization to another Nonetheless all the world's great religions insist on the need to transform this inner world Such transformations often ritually enacted reveal the primary intuitions drives and conflicts active within the culture The individual essays study dramatic examples of these processes in a wide range of cultures including China India Tibet Greece and Rome Late Antiquity Islam Judaism and medieval and early modern Christian Europe From Memory to Transformation Sarah Silberstein Swartz, Margie Wolfe, 1998 Not satisfied by the established roles assigned to them Jewish women have begun to uncover their history religion and culture using tradition and memory to inspire and transform their lives In From Memory to Transformation women activists rabbis scholars writers and artists explore the themes of Jewish women's history feminism activism and social change religion ritual and spirituality personal identity and Jewish women's creativity By editors of the prizewinning Found Treasures Stories by Yiddish Women Writers this compelling collection aims to define the ties that bind our past present and future
