Take Back Your Privacy David Haywood Young, 2016-01-20 Curious about surveillance Wondering about the security of your computer or phone These are just a couple of starting points The author with decades of experience in the field takes us on a journey through the digital landscape Exhaustively researched with hundreds of links it's nevertheless written in an informal and entertaining style Do you know the difference between a web browser and the internet That's about all you'll need to start When you're done with this book you'll know more than most IT information technology professionals do about digital security You'll be able to analyze the claims made by tech bloggers and those who flog their own products You'll know much much more about the risks to your privacy and anonymity and why they're both so important in today's fast moving world. Then at the end the author tells how he once went to jail for trying to help protect thousands of college students including himself. It's a chilling reminder of just how easily spin can replace substance. And yet it's a funny story. Come on in and give this book a try. You'll be glad you did.

Participation in Public and Social Media Interactions Marta Dynel, Jan Chovanec, 2015-02-15 This book deals with participation frameworks in modern social and public media. It brings together several cutting edge research studies that offer exciting new insights into the nature and formats of interpersonal communication in diverse technology mediated contexts. Some papers introduce new theoretical extensions to participation formats while others present case studies in various discourse domains spanning public and private genres. Adopting the perspective of the pragmatics of interaction these contributions discuss data ranging from public mass mediated and quasi authentic texts fully staged and scripted textual productions to authentic non scripted private messages and comments both of a permanent and ephemeral nature The analyses include news interviews online sports reporting sitcoms comedy shows stand up comedies drama series institutional and personal blogs tweets follow up YouTube video commentaries and Facebook status updates All the authors emphasize the role of context and pay attention to how meaning is constructed by participants in interactions in increasingly complex participation frameworks existing in traditional as well as novel technologically mediated interactions
