FAST FACTS DEMOCRACY

- Democracy is a system of government where the citizens elect their representatives to make decisions for them.
- There are many different types of democracy, but they all have one thing in common: the people have a say in how they are governed.
- In a direct democracy, the people vote on laws and decisions themselves.
- In a representative democracy, the people elect representatives to make decisions for them.
- In a constitutional monarchy, the monarch is the head of state, but the real power is held by the elected government.
- In an absolute monarchy, the monarch has complete power over the country.
- In a dictatorship, one person has all the power and makes all the decisions.

WHAT'S A DEMOCRACY?

A democracy is a system of government where the citizens elect their representatives to make decisions for them. There are many different types of democracy, but they all have one thing in common: the people have a say in how they are governed.
