Passion: Besides, the leader uses some emotions that can be seen in his rich language and vivid imagery. Despite the hardships faced by African Americans, he offers a positive vision of a time when individuals will be judged on the content of their character rather than the colour of their skin. His delivery of the line "I have a dream" with passion and repetition creates powerful feelings in the audience.

Logos: Luther highlights the gaps between American values and the reality of racial and ethnic prejudice while providing logical justification for his claims. Hence, he makes the case for the importance of significant and quick change using logical reasoning and concrete proof.

Summary: To sum up, the rhetorical essay sample on the "I Have a Dream" speech by Martin Luther King Jr. is one of the outstanding rhetorical analysis examples of effective appeal. He has rightly presented his vision of equality in society by using the technique of symbolism.

How Students Write: A Linguistic Analysis Laura Louise Aull, 2020-04-01 Broad generalizations about people today are a familiar feature of first year student writing. How Students Write brings a fresh perspective to this perennial observation using corpus linguistics techniques. This study analyzes sentence level patterns in student writing to develop an understanding of how students present evidence, draw connections between ideas, relate to their readers, and ultimately learn to construct knowledge in their writing. Drawing on both first year and upper level student writing, the book examines the discourse of students at different points in their education. It also distinguishes between argumentative and analytic essays to explore the way school genres and assignments shape students' choices. In focusing on sentence level features such as hedges, perhaps, and boosters, this study shows how such rhetorical choices work together to open or close opportunities for thoughtful exchanges of ideas. Attention to these features can help instructors foster civil discourse, design effective assignments, and expose and question norms of higher education.
