

The book cover is framed by a highly detailed, ornate Gothic archway. The arch's ribs and the space between them are filled with intricate carvings of figures and architectural elements. On the left and right sides of the arch, there are tall, slender columns topped with statues of figures in robes. The background of the cover is a sepia-toned illustration depicting a busy, crowded interior scene, likely a prison or a large hall, with many people in period clothing. The title 'KLEIN DORRIT' is prominently displayed in large, stylized letters across the center, with 'ROMAN' below it and 'Band 3 von 4' further down. The author's name 'Charles Dickens' is at the top, and 'ILLUSTRIERT' is at the bottom.
